Trustees Question Tentative Proposal

By GARRY NIVER

The third act of the San Mateo County Committee on School District Organization was played last Wednesday evening, November 28, before a packed house in the Westmoor High School library.

And, just as in the first two sessions, the group, augmented by the five local districts—Jefferson Elementary, Laguna Salada, Brisbane, Bayshore and Jefferson High School—escaped from the plot lines and emerged into a fog of hypothetical situations.

The 11-member committee, along with trustees of the local districts, are trying to agree on the tentative reorganization proposal in compliance with the state Master Plan Law of 1959.

The proposal which is currently being discussed and attacked is the unification of the Jefferson Elementary School District, Laguna Salada School District, Brisbane and Bayshore districts—whose collective physical area is exactly that of the present Jefferson Union High School District.

The augmented committee cannot introduce another proposal of district unification until they have voted the present one down. If the present configuration is passed, it will quell all further attempts by the local trustees to present another proposal at this time.

The tentative plan must go to the State Board of Education for approval, and then back to the people of North San Mateo County for a vote.

Last Wednesday was the third out of a possible five meetings. It was actually supposed to be the next to last meeting, but the vote on the tentative plan was put off until the next meeting, Jan. 16, 1962. After which a public hearing must be held for the populace to voice their opinion.

Against Unification

The battle lines became clearer last meeting as the five school districts all but officially declared that they were against the unification plans.

The trustees feel that they have done a commendable job and that the proposal is a swipe at their integrity. The unification proposal would eliminate all but one board and one superintendent.

They also feel that there is a multiplicity of conflicting interest within such a large district, and that much of the identity which now exists in the separate districts would be lost.

Hard Work

The 11-member committee, on the other hand, is doing its job as mandated by the state legislature. It has worked and studied hard for two years to come up with the current configuration.

Mrs. Ruth Boudinet of the Laguna Salada District, opened the meeting by asking, "Why were some of the other configurations eliminated?"

Elem. Board Against Plan For Unification

Jefferson Elementary School District board members Monday night favored the issue of unification of schools, but indicated disfavor with the present county unification plan to combine their district with the Jefferson High School, Laguna Salada, Bayshore and Brisbane school districts.

"I'm afraid there ought to be another way," said board member O. Wayne Douglas.

The State Board of Education has requested a plan for a unified school district by September, 1963. Three study sessions, composed of members of these school districts, have been held.

Board chairman Thomas Noonan felt the issue began with taxes. "If the districts are joined," he said, "Daly City residents would, in effect, be 'subsidizing' Pacifica because they have a lower assessed valuation. Daly City has an assessed valuation of $8,088 per student and Laguna Salada $3,955.

Smaller Classes

The board discussed class sizes in the district with the possibility of limiting size of classes. Present normal class sizes do not exceed 40 students per class. Board members said smaller classes would probably increase chances for better instruction. Superintendent Richard Foster presented costs of changes in class sizes.

Board member O. Wayne Douglas said the school district should consider using a computer to study movement of children with the thought of a push button money saving device.

Mrs. Katherine R. Mullen of the board related how teacher aid for room mothers had been used with success in other districts, particularly in helping with grading of papers.

Douglas said the district should consider ungraded classrooms. Board chairman Noonan said he wished more people came to PTA meetings that knew more about these programs.

The board authorized appointment of three officials for each of 60 polling places for the April 16 school election.

The board voted to amend a property description to include 14.2 acres of land as part of Area 3 school.

Dolwig To Ask For 4 Yr. College

Senator Richard J. Dolwig, San Mateo county, has announced he will introduce a bill in the coming legislative session for a $7 million appropriation to purchase a four-year college site in San Mateo county. The money would provide for the acquisition of a 320-acre location to meet requirements of the State Colleges Board of Trustees.

"With continued population growth, and the development of industry in San Mateo county, large parcels of desirable land are becoming more difficult to obtain," Senator Dolwig warned. "Furthermore, the reduction of available large acreage has caused a continual increase in real value. I believe it to be a wise move for the State to provide the funds, as soon as possible, for the purchase of a suitable site. Delays in the past have proven costly." (Continued on Page 2)

The following helpful hints on how to mail your Christmas cards and gifts to insure prompt delivery before December 25th. Use 4 cent postage on your Christmas cards.

Personal messages may thus be included in the cards, whereas on a 3 cent card, only your signature is allowed.

Avoid careless packing of your gifts. Use strong cartons, wrap in heavy paper and tie with a sturdy cord. Place an extra label showing your return address and the address of the addressee, inside the parcel so that in the event of the loss of the outside label, the article may be properly forwarded or returned.

Postmaster Murphy reminded his patrons that they should make every effort to shop and mail early.

Beautiful Forger Is Arrested

She was beautiful. She had a good job and lived in one of the more fashionable homes in Westview. Her husband was an electrical engineer.

Yet, Marilyn Cochran, 23, of 420 Heathcliff, Pacifica, could give no reason to police officers why she forged another woman's name to $1,000 worth of purchases since last December at leading department stores in San Francisco and in San Mateo County other than it appeared easy.

Daly City inspector Phil LaBruzzo said the woman, who works as a secretary for a South San Francisco construction firm, was arrested after making 14 purchases at the H. Liebes store in Westlake under the name of Mrs. David G. Wright.

A store clerk followed her out of the store and obtained the license number of her car, which was registered in her real name at her Pacifica address.

Officers said the woman asked clerks to charge small purchases under the fictitious name. She was released on bail November 28 and appeared for arraignment December 3.

'First Teen Chamber' Launched In Daly City

Five Daly City teenagers this week announced the formation of the "First Teenage Chamber of Commerce in the nation."

First meeting of what looks like a big step for the betterment of teenagers was held Nov. 28. The youths, formed by students from Westmoor and Jefferson High School, will be headed by Desmond Epidendio, president; George Eberle, internal vice president; Dal Daniele, external vice president; Jim Grand Bouche, treasurer; Mike O'Dea, secretary and Bill Miske, sergeant at arms.

Epidendio said the organization will try to work toward the same goals as the Junior Chamber of Commerce—civic progress and self betterment. The club, he said, will serve as a stepping stone to the Jaycees.

A teenage employment agency is planned for one of the group's projects. The officers have agreed that any high school age youth may join, providing he lives in Daly City or Colma. Meetings will be held the first and third Tuesday of each month at Bavarese's residence.

For information concerning this new teenage activity call VA 6-0810 or PL 5-2407.

Planning Commission To Meet December 11

The Daly City Planning Commission on December 11 will consider the following:

1. Hearing on an application for variance filed by Charles L. Terry, 320 Citrus avenue, Daly City, to increase the lot coverage from the maximum requirement of 50 to 60 percent at 320 Citrus avenue.

2. Petition filed by Thomas J. Callan, Jr. and Michael F. Callan, 2790 Junipero Serra boulevard, Daly City, to rezone property east and adjacent to Westmoor High School from multiple residential to commercial.

Daly City Water Dept. Goes Modern

Daly City's water system will be operated automatically next year by a system of blinking lights, gongs and pressure gauges which link control lines throughout the city.

An instrument panel will give engineers and operators up to date information on the operational status of every pump and reservoir and every settling tank.

This new setup—the only virtually automatic system on the peninsula—was designed by the Daly City engineering staff headed by city engineer William Chapman.

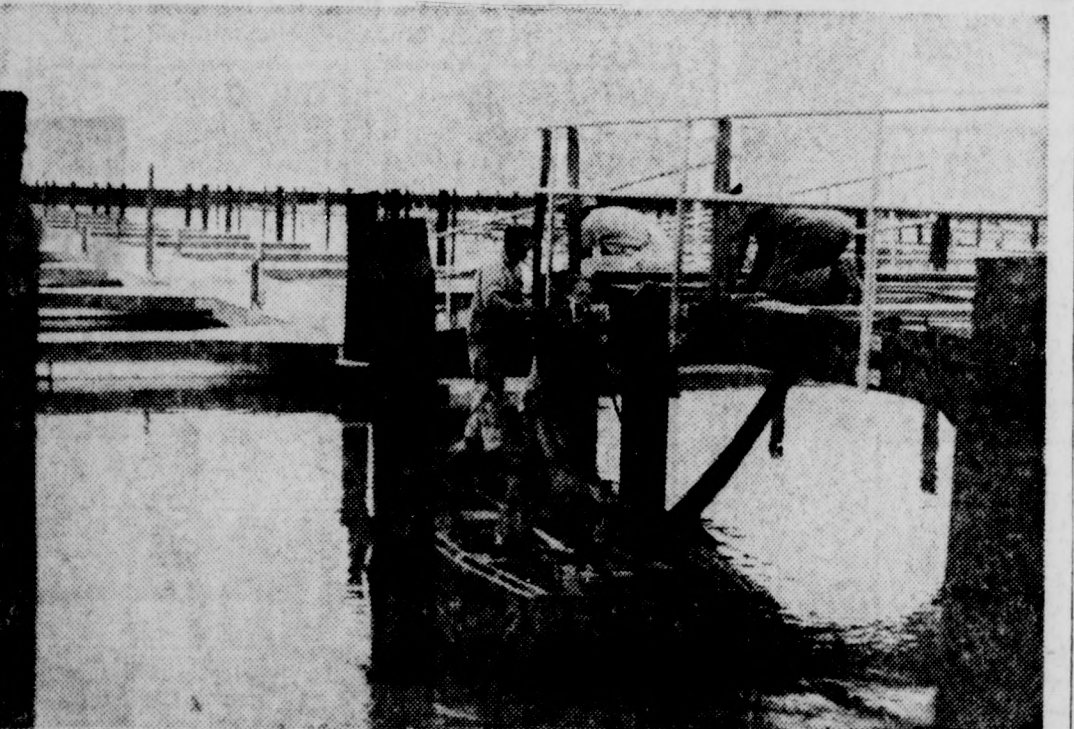

The automatic controls, designed "to catch trouble before it happens," will give the water department a more accurate control of water flow throughout the city and will actually save the city money by eliminating the swing shift and night shift 365 days of the year. This will free these men to do more important work in the daytime.

It will not only save manpower, but will control the water system and balance the reservoirs to a closer degree.

At the present time a man must travel around in a truck and check each reservoir manually. He looks into each reservoir to determine its capacity, then comes back, interprets the data in order to reset the pumps in relation to that date.

The old system is especially bad during hot days, since the NEW MARINA—Work nears completion on 284 berths at South San Francisco's new $1,000,000 marina, slated to open early in 1963. The marina, located on San Francisco Bay off Butler road, will have an administration building, coffee shop, fuel dock, boating supply store and restrooms. Contractors are John Bloom & Associates, of San Francisco.

data was often too old to use by the time the man has collected it.

New, modern pump controls will be installed on a control board to work automatically or manually. When a pump fails or a reservoir shows either too high or too low, a red light begins flashing. . . then a gong starts and the light stays on until the trouble is corrected.

Seven reservoirs and two settling tanks will be controlled by the system.

The City of Daly City has a total water storage capacity of 8,493 gallons in reservoirs. This represents a storage for each household in Daly City of 590 gallons.

The total city well capacity is 6,300,000 gallons per day. The city also has standby San Francisco water resources. In an average day, Daly City—in the course of drinking water, flushing toilets, washing cars and watering lawns, uses 4 1/2 million gallons.

The maximum daily record for water used in Daly City was on July 10, 1961, when 10.3 million gallons went down the drain.

It is interesting to note that less than 1 per cent of all water is used for drinking purposes; however, the drinking water standards must be maintained for the other 99 per cent.

Home-Owned Bank Gets Good Response

More than $300,000 in subscription requests for stock shares of Daly City's first home owned bank have been received for the First National Bank of Daly City, according to John F. Farni, president of the new institution.

Speaking for the sponsor group, Farni stated "it is the intent to give everyone situated locally an opportunity to participate in ownership of this home-owned bank."

Allocation of subscriptions to the stock is planned for a December 15 closing.

Offering of subscriptions was made the capital stock of $1,000,200 at $33.34 a share. Temporary offices for the First National Bank of Daly City (organizing) are at 6748 Mission street.

The bank building committee has reviewed construction plans and expects to begin construction the early part of next year.

W'lake Stationers Purchased by Daly City Men

Well known Daly City residents Frank Pacelli, Michael DeBernardi and Frank Monte have announced the purchase of the Westlake Stationers, 327 South Mayfair Avenue, Daly City, from Beatrice Robinson of Mill Valley.

The sale of the business, located in the Westlake Shopping Center, was consummated at the offices of William O'Keefe in Stonestown Monday, December 3. The trio will take over direct ownership December 18.

Unification

and Laguna Salada and South San Francisco, Bayshore and Brisbane were rejected because "a disparity of ability to support a program of more than $2,000 per pupil exists, with Jefferson and Laguna Salada having more than $600 per pupil less if it remained with the Jefferson High School District. South San Francisco, in the meantime, would gain additional financial ability from Brisbane and Bayshore." Other configurations were also omitted because of these same reasons.

Dr. Kent, consultant to the committee, said that it was necessary for Laguna Salada to be accepted into the Jefferson district because its total revenue per student is $352.72, compared with Bayshore's $425, while its tax rate is the highest in the county at $2.69 per $100. Bayshore's tax rate is $1.65.

The Jefferson Elementary district afforded the most opposition to the unification proposal, with trustee Tom Noonan, well armed with charts and facts, presenting the argument.

Noonan asserted that the unification proposal would mean a tax raise for all involved. The combined tax would be raised to $3.02 per $100 assessed valuation. This would mean increases of $3.34 for Jefferson Elementary, $2.99 for Laguna Salada, $3.57 for Brisbane and $6.1 for Bayshore," reported Noonan.

Noonan then made a proposal putting South San Francisco and Laguna Salada under one wing, contending the tax cost would be equalized. He said much tax money would have to be spent "bringing the education level of Laguna Salada up to that of the Jefferson district."

Noonan further added that Laguna Salada is more contiguous to South San Francisco and Millbrae than it is to Daly City. Brisbane's Allen Rigler presented the most significant question of the three meetings when he asked, "What are the specific advantages to this type of education? How is our present educational system in the district going to be changed?" asked Rigler.

The interrogatives asking for specifics set both committees and trustees back on their heels and neither was able to answer Rigler.

The vote on the tentative plan, which was supposed to come to be Wednesday, was put off until January 16. Mrs. Kerwin made the concluding remarks, reiterating Rigler's remarks.

"We must answer what this is going to do for the education of our kids," she said. "I think we should make an analysis of this from an educational standpoint. Let me see whether we are going to improve our education system, stagnate, or whether going to go down hill," she concluded.

The discussion finally touched ground again.

Shopper's Mall Plan for South San Francisco

A shopper's mall for downtown South San Francisco has been proposed as part of the city's master plan project.

The firm preparing the master plan, William Spangler and Associates, propose creation of a downtown mall to bend the present Grand Avenue southward to Baden Avenue from a point west of Spruce Avenue, then curve back to connect with East Grand, east of Airport Boulevard.

Grand Avenue, in the area where it would be eliminated as a street, would become a system of pedestrian walkways and plazas. North-South streets, such as Linden Avenue, would remain in the area.

Parking problems would be solved by creating parking plazas at the interior of the blocks.

Temple Baptist To Show U.N. Films

A feature-length, color film "Power Among Men" will be shown at the evening service, Sunday, at Temple Baptist Church at Stonestown. This 90-minute film is produced by the United Nations, and shows the growing world community, and man's capacity to build or destroy this community.

The "Saturday Review of Literature" is quoted as saying that this film is "...the most important motion picture of the decade." In response to Christ's concern that his followers be peacemakers, and learn to love their neighbors, the Church presents this film to provoke thought about the world community and our responsibilities in it.

The evening services will start at 7:15, and will also feature a solo by Jack Bjorkquist, baritone. The Church is located at 3355 - 19th Avenue near Winston Drive, at Stonestown. You are cordially invited to come.

Sharpe is married and is affiliated with the Commonwealth Club, Pacific Rod and Gun Club and Masonic Lodge.

David Friedenberg resides at 15 Highland Avenue in Daly City with his wife and two children. A prominent Daly City attorney for the past seven years, Friedenberg has offices at 373 South Mayfair Avenue. He began law practice in January, 1954 following graduation from the University of California at Berkeley and Hastings College of Law in San Francisco. Friedenberg is presently serving as counsel for the First National Bank (organizing) of Daly City.

Dolwig To

Senator Dolwig, a long-time advocate of a local State college, mentioned that in 1959 he authored a similar bill requesting $2 million for a 320-acre site. With a purchase price increase of $5 million in four years, prompt action will obviously save the State a great deal of money.

"With 690,000 San Mateo county residents estimated for 1970 by the county-wide master plan project, and a 1970 high school graduation class of 10,100 with only a junior college in the county to attend, the four-year college is an immediate eventuality. Neighboring colleges—San Francisco State and San Jose State—are already bursting at the seams with little hope for expansion, because of physical limitations.

"It is well to note," Senator Dolwig added, "that realization of a State college requires legislative action to provide the funds for land purchase; more time for the selection of a site; additional money for construction costs, and finally the actual building of the school. With each delay, the cost is increased."

YULE TREE MONEY—The city council turned out last week to thank the Chamber of Commerce for $700 donation for installation of Daly City's 80-foot-high Christmas tree, which will be decorated with some 1,400 light bulbs high in the Crocker Hills. From left are councilman Frank Pacelli, Mayor Joseph Verdacci, councilman Michael DeBernardi, Frank Curry, of the Chamber of Commerce, and councilman Edward Dennis.

Grid Player Loses 'Scrimmage' In Bar

A burly young man who told police he had just finished playing a year of college football came out second best in a short scrimmage with police Sgt. Matt Murray last week at Duffy's Tavern, 6398 Mission, Daly City.

The man, James Licavoli, 24, of 539 Taraval street, was arrested on a charge of disturbing the peace, assault and battery and resisting arrest.

According to police, Licavoli had been drinking beer at Duffy's and the bartender had difficulty "shutting him off." He began arguing and would not return his glass.

Officer Murray stopped by and told Licavoli to leave peacefully. Instead, the man started a fight, Murray "arrested Licavoli physically" and threw him in the bastle, at the same time suffering a cut hand from a broken glass.

SHERMAN MILLER has been elected vice-president of the billion-dollar-plus First Charter Financial Corporation. Miller continues as executive vice-president and managing officer of Pioneer Investors Savings, Home Mutual Savings and Berkeley Savings—all savings and loan associations affiliated with First Charter.

Pioneer Investor Vice Pres. Elected

The directors of First Charter Financial Corporation have elected Sherman Miller a vice-president of that organization, according to an announcement this week by Charles Wellman, president of the billion-dollar-plus financial institution.

Miller continues to hold the post of executive vice-president and managing officer of Pioneer Investors Savings, Home Mutual Savings, and Berkeley Savings, Northern California affiliates of First Charter. He has also been a director of First Charter since its founding.

Joining Pioneer Investors Savings in 1954 as assistant to the president, Miller was elevated to executive vice-president of the three major Northern California savings and loan associations in 1958.

Wellman also announced that C. S. Diffin, long-time director of Pioneer Investors Savings, Home Mutual and Berkeley Savings, has been elected financial vice-president of First Charter Financial Corporation.

In addition to the three Northern California institutions, First Charter operates three savings and loan associations in Southern California, as well as various complementary financial subsidiaries.

Reading Panel Talk At Gar. Village PTA

"Even jumping rope is part of reading readiness," stated Mrs. Otha Kinsey, kindergarten teacher and panelist at Garden Village PTA's November meeting.

The panel, moderated by Mr. Robert Fernkes, dealt with improvement of home-school relationships. The teachers' point of view was presented by Mrs. Kinsey, Miss Corinne Larsen, and Edward Rubenich, while the parental side of the panel included James Katapodis, Robert Crawford, and Warren Vocke.

In her discussion, Mrs. Kinsey pointed out that the home is the original school, that school should be regarded not as something separate from the home but rather as a part of the home and the parents.

The aspect stressed by Miss Larsen was homework, in her words, "a place where both teacher and child and parent can take part." And in this connection she mentioned that communication between home and school should become more frequent.

Rubenich extended the discussion of communication, emphasizing its importance in community life and the importance of the school as part of the community. "But," he said, "in order for it to be successful it must maintain certain lines of communication," giving as examples parent-teacher conferences and PTA meetings.

Search Goes On For Miss X-mas Spirit

The air is nippy, the store windows are decorated in reds and greens and the kiddies are beginning to pay special heed to parents for fear "Santa" may be watching.

Another sure sign that the Christmas holidays are close is the accelerated pace of the Daly City-Colma Junior Chamber of Commerce as the search for "Miss Christmas Spirit" continues.

Are you a high school girl, and a resident of Daly City-Colma? A pleasing appearance and gracious manner will be your open door to the "Miss Christmas Spirit" contest. Sixteen lovely young ladies have already entered the festivities with invitations to the contestants' tea at the home of Miss Lana Green, Miss San Francisco, 1961.

Preliminary judging will be held in the Westlake Court on December 7, at 7:30 p.m. Final judging will be held December 21, and "Miss Christmas Spirit" will be named with her court of five runners-up. A motorcade will follow on December 22, at 1:30. Cars carrying the lovely winner and her court are being donated by the Gateway Chevrolet and Neville Ford agencies.

There is still some time left for additional entrants in the contest. Those persons interested in participation in the "Miss Christmas Spirit" contest may contact Jack Green, at PL 5-0377 or PL 6-9830 for entry blanks and more detailed information.

Entrants so far include: Susan Bernard, Paulette Carr, Phyllis Carroll, Francine Cosma, Linda Christman, Suzanne Daubin, Judi Descalzo, Carol Durkin, Marlene Frantero, Carol Funai, Georgie Hoffmann, Pam Karp, Cecilia Murish, Linda McArthur, Marsha Lynn Wilson and Joan Wright.

'Where's Charlie' Plays at State

"Where's Charlie?" will play six performances in San Francisco State College's Main Theatre, December 7, 8, 12, 13, 14, and 15. Curtain is at 8:30 p.m. For reservations, tickets and information, call or write the Creative Arts Box Office, 1600 Holloway avenue, San Francisco 27, California, JUniper 5-7174. The box office is open from 1 to 4, Monday through Friday.

County Christmas Bureau In Action

The Community Christmas Bureau of San Mateo County will operate again this year with the recommendation of the County Board of Supervisors and with the renewed endorsement of the Department of Public Health and Welfare of San Mateo County, the Catholic Social Service, the American Red Cross, and other social welfare and health agencies.

The Community Christmas Bureau is an outgrowth of the Adrian Ward Christmas Fund and it has the following objectives: (1) to operate as a clearing house for information and referrals within the county (2) to avoid disappointment, waste and duplication in Christmas giving (3) to encourage above all gifts of money and merchandise orders to meet the special requirements of "priority needy" families presented to the Bureau by the various agencies and to make possible the purchase of equipment and special needs of community agencies (4) to emphasize in every way possible the value of early Christmas giving (a) a gift of money sent to a family in need early in December is more truly thoughtful than the Christmas basket (b) or three or four? left on a door step the day before Christmas, (b) a Christmas card with dollars enclosed may make a Christmas for a lone elderly person living on a minimum budget if it gets there in time (5) the Bureau is happy to act as the coordinating agency for the Marine's "Toys for Tots" program. These toys are distributed through the social welfare agencies to families whom they know to be in need.

A gift made through the Christmas Bureau may be made of an individual or an organization, and if desired, its use may be specified.

The Christmas Bureau is staffed by volunteers recruited through the Volunteer Bureau of San Mateo County and operates under a year round volunteer committee made up of representatives of the social welfare, health and recreation agencies and members of civic, fraternal and club groups of the entire county.

Drawing Students Are Engaged in Sheet Metal Work

Westmoor High School mechanical drawing students have recently been leaving the old drawing board to find tin plate in the metal shop.

As part of the course in engineering drawing, the third year students last week began group work in sheet metal construction. Mr. Larry Carlson, who is initiating the project this year, advises and instructs the boys in each stage of the construction.

the winner's circle

By GARRY NIVER

We see where the owners of the San Francisco Warriors are a little miffed at the Bay Area sport populace for not supporting their team. The National Basketball Association cagers are barely drawing over the 2000 per mark, which seems somewhat lower than the now-defunct San Francisco Saints drew.

However, before the owners of the Warriors set up a moan, let them take a look back to last year when the move was instigated. As we remember it, nobody put up a howl asking for the Warriors.

terprise. So this year they came and were met with a mild enthusiasm—mostly built around the fact that they were a winning team and possessed the cage game's greatest attraction, Wilt Chamberlain.

Unfortunately for the Warrior owners, what enthusiasm was present has now been somewhat dampened by 13 losses in the last 21 games.

They brought to San Francisco what has plagued the city its entire sporting life—a loser. It is apparent that there is no more room in San Francisco for another loser.

Despite their somewhat greedy aspirations, we hope that the "Big Dipper" and his boys start winning and give San Francisco a winning team. If there is anything San Francisco hates worse than losers, it's moaning losers.

ON THE SIDELINES . . . Nine year-old Arthur Olson from South SF will perform before the 49er fans at Kezar next Sunday in a run-off of the national Pass, Kick, and Punt contest. The little lad has had some good tutoring. His brother, Carl Jr., was the kick-off man for the South SF Braves, the 1962 North Peninsula League Frosh-Soph Grid Champ.

The Olson boys have quite an athletic heritage. Their father is Carl "Boho" Olson, former World's Middleweight Champ, and a current ranker in the Light-heavy division. Olson, the senior that is, is currently winging his way towards Rome, Italy, for a December 14 bout against third-ranked Giulio Rinaldi. A good solid win would project him into the light-heavyweight picture.

George Harrison, of George Harrison Realty, treated his Daly City Midget baseball team to a picnic at the San Bruno Park recently. The youths, their fathers, and manager Rocky Kubowitz, had a rousing good time, with the picnic terminating in a water-balloon fight.

Speaking of fights, the Soccer League which plays at Orange Park in South SF every Sunday had better get a few constables on duty.

Last Sunday a game between the Mexican Club and the South SF All Stars erupted into a good sized skirmish which almost got out of hand. Only cooler heads on both sides prevented an all out war.

At the height of the battle about twenty players and spectators were involved in the free-swinging melee. When the battle finally subsided, three of the players were lying unconscious on the turf.

Daly City Recreation Director Charles Vincent reports that the city is expecting a good turn-out of youngsters at the Basketball Clinic to be given this Saturday at Westmoor High School.

Paul Rundell and his San Francisco State Cagers will be on hand to show the local youths the art of basketball. The show starts at 1 p.m.

Hunter Negligence Leads To Tragic Gun Accidents

With California's hills and valleys still resounding to the crack of firearms and quite a few hunting seasons still under way, it might be a good thing for hunters to give some quiet thought to the odd ways in which hunting accidents can happen.

Just last year, points out the National Automobile Club, two pheasant hunters came to an electric fence, one crawled under, the second started to crawl under, touched the "hot wire," dropped his shotgun, and blasted a load of shot into his partner's arm.

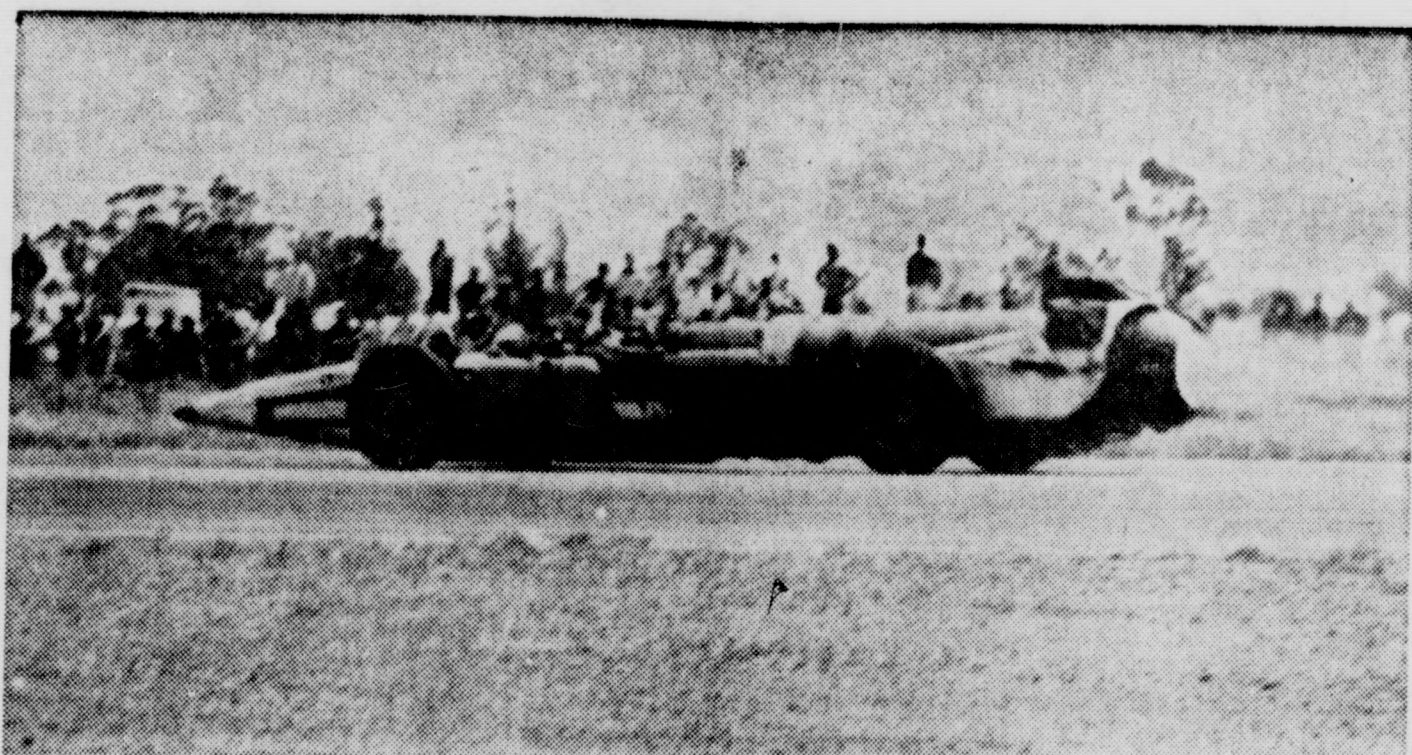

A hunter stepped out of his car, loaded his shotgun, and set butt-down on the ground while he stopped to talk to a friend. At this point the hunter's four-year-old son came up from behind and jerked the trigger. The blast blew off a large portion of the hunter's hand, a fairly mild accident considering the circumstances.

A young hunter was leading some friends through familiar territory when he came to a spot where he had wounded himself two years before. He decided to show his friends how it happened, and it happened again. Once more he was stuck with a bullet through his foot.

A man wounded a goose, which fell on the water between the hunter and two of his companions. The man shot at the goose again, the shotgun pellets ricocheted off the surface of the water, and wounded the two companions.

A young man saw some birds run into a patch of brush. Trying to scare them out, he poked at the brush with the butt end of his rifle. This set off the rifle and the shot killed the young man.

THE UNTOUCHABLE, the nation's fastest jet-powered dragster, will make its appearance at the Half Moon Bay strip this Sunday. The jet-powered speeds in excess of 205 mph on creation will be going for the Half Moon Bay asphalt.

Community Center . . .

Westlake Bowl Anniversary

Four years ago Johnny Swanson opened the doors of Westlake Bowl to residents of the Daly City area introducing America's fastest growing recreation to Northern San Mateo County. Since that date, over one million persons have visited the Bowl to participate in or watch the largest participant sport.

Starting with 32 lanes, a short four months later an additional 20 lanes were added to make Westlake the largest bowling center in Northern California.

The pride of the Westlake Bowl is its recently expanded child-care center where over 42,000 children have been cared for while mothers bowled during the four years of operation.

Aside from bowling, Westlake Bowl is the site of many community affairs. Weekly meetings of the Optimist and Rotary Clubs are held in the private banquet room while the Westlake Merchants Association and many other groups and organizations hold luncheon and dinner meetings there.

Monday and Friday mornings find the Y.W.C.A. "Y" Wives and bridge clubs in session. On the first Thursday of each month, the North San Mateo County Y.W.C.A. presents a Fashion Show-Luncheon. Every morning and afternoon hundreds of ladies, beginners and advanced bowlers, take to the lanes for instruction or in competition, while over 3,000 men and women comprise the evening league bowler group.

During the four years of its operation, Westlake Bowl has provided countless hours of healthful recreation in a clean atmosphere for the residents of the Daly City area. It is proud of its contribution to the Community, particularly of the fact that in four years it has raised over $20,000.00 for the Daly City Police Athletic League through its annual benefit bowling tournament.

CSM Grapplers Meet San Jose

With one league hurdle behind them, College of San Mateo's undefeated wrestlers tackle tough San Jose City college on Friday.

In league openers last weekend, CSM came from behind to knock over Golden Gate conference title minded Chabot, 21-16, and Oakland knocked off San Jose, 21-13 in a similar come-back. San Mateo opened its season earlier in the week by dumping the Stanford freshmen, 32-9.

Against CSM, Chabot almost swept the lighter divisions, taking four of the first five matches for a 16-3 lead. But San Mateo made a fantastic come-back to score 18 out of a maximum 20 points in the four heavier weights with three pins and one decision.

CSM pins were recorded by Ken Green (167) from Sequoia High and San Mateo high's Bill Fife (191) and Phil Derr (heavy). The score was knotted at 16-16 entering the heavyweight tussle but Derr pinned Dennis Strom in 2:07 of the second period for the team victory. Fife's pin took but one minute and three seconds.

Mrs. K. Roberts Top Cypress Lady

Mrs. Kenneth Roberts carved out a neat 88-20-68 over the sprawling Cypress Hills Golf course to nab the low honors Thursday, November 29, in the Cypress Hills Ladies' Golf Club tournament.

Mrs. Edison Phillips, sporting the low handicap of the day, fired an 89-17-72 to take second place honors in the Class A division. Mrs. George Raybill was third with a 97-23-74.

In the Class B division Mrs. Kenneth Rueppel toured the fairways in a 100-34-66 for low net in that division. Two strokes behind was Mrs. Robert Charles with a 101-33-68. Mrs. Charles Callendar was third with a 74.

Mrs. S. K. Stranger topped the Class C division with a scintillating 91-35-56 score. Mrs. Joseph Kusben was next with a 106-42-64 tally and Mrs. Robert Oylea was third with a net 66.

PAL Teams Dominate City Grid Leagues

The Police Athletic League entries dominated the action in the just-concluded Daly City Recreation Grid Leagues. The three PAL entries finished in a one-two-three order in the 5th Grade League and one and three in the 6th Grade loop.

Top team in the 5th Grade League was the championship Eagles, who posted an undefeated season. The PAL team scored a record 174 points while yielding only a stingy 12 points to their opponents.

The Eagles' offensive punch was paced by Butch Bonavito, Larry Belfrage and Fred Ballo, the latter who scored 12 touchdowns. In the line the champs were led by the strong blocking of Rick Berger, Randy Fitzgerald, and Tito Regino.

The defensive stalwarts were Gary St. Clair, Carol Garcia, and Pat Cassidy. Coaches for the Eagles were Rich Brewer and Boyd Hillyer.

The PAL Indians grabbed the second spot. They were tutored by George Pedroni and Bill Hauger. The third place PAL Bulldogs were coached by George Ambrosio.

In the Sixth Grade League, the PAL Vikings swept past seven straight opponents to post an undefeated season. Ron Hackett, Tom Belvin and Steve Kirby were the keys to the offensive machine.

The strong Viking line was anchored by Dave Bauer, Al Tembreza and Les Williams. Leading the defensive unit were Jason Dave Heedor, Gordy Contreras, Gary Piccardo and Gary Wilson. Coaches were Rich Brewer and Don Hackett.

The Vikings, in powering over their seven opponents, scored 168 points, while only giving up 34 points.

Weekly All-Corner Track Meets Open Saturday

All-Corner track meets, sponsored by the Northern California Track and Field Association, enter their sixth season this winter.

The weekly Saturday afternoon meets will be held at Palo Alto high school from December 8 through February 23, according to association vice-president Berny Wagner.

Standard collegiate order of events will be followed except that the only hurdle race will be the 120 low hurdles. Field events and the first running event start at 1 p.m.

Wagner, regular track and cross country coach at College of San Mateo, noted that in case of wet weather meets will be moved to the Foothill college all-weather track in Los Altos Hills. Only indoor spikes and flats may be used on the Foothill track, however.

The all-corners are open to all athletes. Athletes must register with the AAU in order to participate and participants will be charged an entry fee of 25 cents per meet.

Special events and women's races will be added to the meet agenda from time to time. Currently on tap is a two man, ten mile relay on December 29.

The regular order of running events: Mile (1 p.m.), 440, 100, 880, 220, three mile, 120 low hurdles. Field events include: high jump, broad jump, hop-step-jump, shot put, discus, pole vault, and javelin.

The NCT&FA is also sponsoring the first Golden Gate Invitational indoor track meet at the San Francisco Cow Palace on February 15. Foothill track coach Jim Terrill is director of the meet.

Jet Dragster Shoots For World Mark At Half Moon

The fabulous "Untouchable" . . . a 5000 pound controlled volcano on wheels . . . known as the world's fastest jet engine dragster, makes his first appearance at Half Moon Bay Drag Strip Sunday, December 9.

Before a record-breaking crowd of completely flabbergasted onlookers at Las Vegas last weekend, the furious power of the "Untouchable" was unleashed, not once but three times, in a display of calculated daring and superb engine skill.

With a thundering roar that strikes one numb and the eerie spectacle of a white-hot sheet of flame 20 to 30 feet long spurring from the exhaust, the "Untouchable" blasts underway and before the impact of the performance has fully registered on the throng, it is through the lights, the throttle cut and two drag chutes released.

The driver, Bob Smith, a 24 year old dragster driver veteran from Santa Clara, affords one of the most thrilling and quickest runs in the annals of drag racing.

With a record in excess of 225 MPH on almost every run, the "Untouchable" set a new ground record of 240 MPH quarter mile speed at Las Vegas with e. t.'s of 6.95 seconds. Designed and built by owner Romeo Palamides of Oakland, the "Untouchable" with a F-86 sabre jet engine running on special jet fuel or grade A diesel oil, functions like an arrow and puts down any question of performance on strips where 200 MPH and more is attainable with maximum possible safety.

Due to the favorable racing condition at Half Moon Bay Drag Strip, the owner of the car feels that an all time high speed record for the dragster is expected. Gates will open at 8 a.m. at the Half Moon Bay Drag Strip, located 26 miles south of San Francisco on Coast Highway No. 1.

Aged Brown Trout

Brown trout have grown to some ripe old ages and to some grand old sizes, according to the National Automobile Club. Just recently a female brown trout that was more than ten years old, measured 33 inches in length, and weighed 17 pounds was found dead on the intake grid of a powerhouse at Baum Lake in Shasta County.

The oldest brown trout of which there is a record was 18 years.

Largest brown trout ever taken in California was a 24-pounder taken in Regulator Lake in 1945.

Largest brown trout ever taken in the world weighed 39 pounds 8 ounces. It came from Loch Awe in Scotland in 1866.

Ahoy, Anglers! Lake Merced Is Trout-Stocked

By the end of this week the Department of Fish and Game will have restocked San Francisco's Merced Lakes with a total of 360,000 large, fingerling rainbow trout that will provide the bulk of the fishing on these lakes during the 1963 season.

The south lake was restocked with 240,000 advanced fingerlings in October. The north lake is scheduled to receive 120,000 four-inch-average trout this week from the Department's Kern River hatchery northeast of Bakersfield. The young fish are expected to be of catchable size when the 1963 season opens.

The south lake was chemically treated in late October to control goldfish and other undesirable species. Tests just completed by the DFG showed that the water is no longer toxic to fish, so the restocking was scheduled.

Colma Jr. High Soccer Team Edges B. Franklin

The Colma Junior High Soccer team, behind the timely boots of Henry Michon, edged past Ben Franklin, 3-2, last week on the latter's field.

Next Wednesday, December 12, the Colma boosters trek down to South SF for a tussle with Alta Loma.

Both teams performed well last week, according to coaches. Michon scored all three goals for Colma, getting some good assists from his teammates.

Daly City Cage Clinic Saturday At Ram Gym

The sounds of bouncing basketballs and pounding fists will reverberate through the Westmoor High School gym this Saturday when the annual Daly City Recreation Department Basketball Clinic gets underway.

Highlighting this year's clinic will be San Francisco State basketball coach Paul Rundell and his Gator cagers. Rundell is well known throughout the west for his small, but speedy teams.

Mayor Joe Verducci, director of athletics at SF State and Charles Vincent, director of recreation in Daly City, last week completed the arrangements which will bring Rundell and the Gator cagers to Westmoor.

The clinic will open at 1 p.m. and will be open to boys from eight to 14 years of age.

The clinic will stress the teaching of skills such as shooting, passing, faking and ball handling. It has been planned to give the youngsters enough opportunity to practice the skills as they are taught and corrected by the varsity players.

Technical arrangements and format of the clinic have been developed by Terry Stogner and Jim Cannon, physical education majors at SF State. Weather permitting, the clinic hopes to use both the boys and girls gymnasiums, and the outside courts.

The children of the community will not only see how the skills are performed by experts but also get a chance to practice under the skilled eye of a varsity player.

Students Register For Rifle Classes

More than 100 interested shooters have registered for the Coyote Point Rifle and Pistol Range educational programs, including hunter safety for juniors and seniors, basic rifle marksmanship for juniors and pistol marksmanship for seniors, reported Glen Smith of the San Mateo County recreation department.

Dr. Laugeson, principal of the Parkside School, San Mateo, is volunteer instructor of the hunter safety course; Lloyd Hummert, lieutenant, U.S.A. (retired) is volunteer instructor for the pistol course, and K. E. Vangene, rangemaster, is instructing the basic rifle marksmanship course.

Additional volunteer instructors are needed to accommodate those seeking instructions. Interested persons may contact rangemaster Vangene at phone 342-9747, or at the Coyote Point Range.

Largest Trout

Commercial fishermen at Lake Athabasca in Saskatchewan, Canada, last summer came home with the largest lake trout ever taken.

The monster fish, reports the National Automobile Club, weighed 102 pounds, was 50 inches long, and was 44 inches around.

An angler using sport gear at Lake Tahoe some years ago took one of the largest trout ever taken in California, a healthy 30-pounder.

Steve Gotelli and Wally Swartz took the first night lead in the current News Call-Bulletin $9,000 tournament as Steve bowled 627 to lead Class 2 while Wally's 568 was high for Class 3.

First prize in the grand finals this year will be a 1963 MG sedan with a retail value of $2,100, while second place will receive a 1963 Zenith color television set valued at $1,025. There are also weekly prizes in all seven classes.

Qualifying continues until January 1 with the semi-finals scheduled for January 5 and 6 and the grand finals on January 12.

Hank Druhe marked his return to league bowling with a big 624 series on a 232 high game in the Westlake Classic.

Dick Hayes continues to pound the pins, this time with a big 617 series in the 99ers League with a high game of 211.

The Lake Merced Handicap produced some exceptionally high scores as Don Irisi shot 241 and 624 while secretary Bob Kein's best effort was a 235 game and 610 series.

Eva Balma shot a big 186 game to lead the Corpus Christi Mothers Guild League in this department, while high series honors went to Norma Schmolke for her excellent 502 effort.

City attorney Paul Hupf became a member of the 600 Club last week as he rolled a 603 series with a high game of 211 to lead the Daly City Employees League. Ruth Galindo was the leading lady for the evening with a 168 game and 464 series.

The Southwest Handicap produced the high series of the night last Thursday as George Alvord shot a big 243 game on his way to a 642 series.

Wednesday morning, Bert Heineman not only took high series honors in the Men's A-1 Nursery League with 626 on games of 222-234-170 but also won himself a 12-pound turkey by competing in the current Police Athletic League turkey shoot.

All roads lead to Westlake Bowl next Saturday night for the fourth anniversary. Since the grand opening, on Dec. 9, 1958, well over one million people have visited the bowl. Starting at 2 p. m., the program will feature junior and adult match games, a No-Tap Sweeper, dance and buffet.

Bulldog Cagers Hit The Road

Hartnell college hosts College of San Mateo basketballers Saturday night at Salinas as the Bulldogs hit the road until the end of the year.

A game with Cabrillo college of Watsonville at Coyote Point Tuesday night was the last home contest for CSM until December 29. Both opponents this week are members of the Coast conference with Cabrillo rating the early league title choice.

In opening games last Friday, Cabrillo nudged Redkey, 62-54, and Hartnell was dumped by College of Sequoias, 73-40. Cabrillo nudged Sequoias by one point on Saturday.

San Mateo's initial game under freshman coach Jack Avina was a success as the Bulldogs smacked College of Marin, 63-31, at Coyote Point, Saturday night.

Freshman John Carmichael from Serra high came off the bench to pace the easy Bulldog victory with 16 points, half of those on free throws.

In fact both teams spent most of the night at the free throw line as officials Dick Murray and Ed Cassilago called 62 fouls during the 40 minute contest, 35 on the Mateans.

However none of the 12 Mateans who saw action as Avina cleared the bench fouled out. Fresh Mitt Dickerson was the only Bulldog not to commit a foul and in addition the only Matean who could not net more field goals than the number of fouls called on him.

The invading Tars led briefly at the outset of the clash, 2-1 and 6-5, but CSM took the lead for good when Woodside's Mike Gilman hit a field goal five and a half minutes into the game. From there the Bulldogs pulled ahead to 11-6 on a lay-in by veteran guard Ron Stademan and a two pointer by center Bob O'Donnell. Carmichael, a 6-4 forward, then paced CSM to a 26-14 advantage which the Tars were able to cut to 31-23 by half-time.

Marin closed to 31-27 at the outset of the second half but guard Denis France from Hillsdale, Stademan, and Carmichael hit five straight points to put CSM out reach for good.

Biggest margin of the game came 3:32 before the end as Carmichael and Gilman sank four free throws in a row for a 60-43 advantage.

However both squads were far off target most of the evening. CSM sank only 19 of 35 charity attempts and Marin connected on 25 of 44.

The field goal percentages were considerably worse but San Mateo's superior height kept control of the ball and allowed the Bulldogs more shots.

"We need a lot of work," Avina emphasized after the contest but he was happy to gain the initial victory.

Superchargers Require Expert On Installation

TOLEDO. — Supercharging can pour on the power and it can pulverize pistons when the supercharger conversion is done by a novice.

Service engineers at Champion Spark Plug Co. warn that in supercharger conversions "compression ratio is usually lowered one or two steps to compensate for the high-boost pressures" but with "denser fuel charges furnished at certain speeds, knocking or detonation tendencies will greatly increase unless ignition timing is suitably adjusted."

And that's not all. The experts suggest that "changes in basic distributor settings alone do not always suffice."

"In most instances, an entirely new 'knock-limited spark advance curve' must be established by adjustments to the automotive spark advance mechanism."

ATTENTION: AUTOMOBILE DEALERS

On occasion, a police officer is requested to respond to the premises of a new or used-car dealer for the purpose of taking a report of a car that was taken by a driver for demonstration purposes and car was not returned. In taking the report, it has been found that in the majority of cases the salesman who allowed the car to be taken from the premises does not have the person's name, address or operator's license number. As a result, it is almost impossible to identify the driver who took the car.

Calling your attention to Section 14606 of the California Vehicle Code, it reads as follows:

"SECTION 14606 CVC — NO PERSON SHALL EMPLOY OR HIRE NOR SHALL KNOWINGLY PERMIT OR AUTHORIZE THE DRIVING OF A MOTOR VEHICLE, OWNED BY HIM OR UNDER HIS CONTROL, UPON THE HIGHWAYS BY ANY PERSON UNLESS THE PERSON IS THEN LICENSED UNDER THIS CODE."

It is therefore requested that, in the future, before any car is allowed to be taken from the premises by an unknown person, for demonstration purposes or other purposes, the person should be required to submit proof of having an operator's license, at which time salesman should record name, address and operator's license number. This would serve two purposes.

First: The party allowing the car to be driven from the premises would be complying with the law as required by the California Vehicle Code.

Second: It would discourage a person taking a car and not returning same, and in the event car was not returned we would have some idea who had the car.

It is felt that through the cooperation of both agencies, the Daly City police department and the car dealers, by taking the aforesaid precautions, we can minimize this type of incident.

R. A. PETROCCHI,
Chief of Police.

Olds. Deliveries

LANSING, MICHIGAN — A total of 31,562 customers took delivery of new Oldsmobiles from dealers during the first 20 days in November, it was announced today by J. F. Wolfman, Oldsmobile general manager and a vice president of General Motors.

He reported sales for the first two selling periods of the month represented a 21.9 per cent increase over the same period of a year ago. In addition, he stated that this was the best November 1 - 20 since 1955.

Deliveries for November 10-20 totaled 15,179, including 3,464 F-85's. Your local Olds dealer is C. M. Murphy Oldsmobile, 3950 19th ave., S. F.

Tractors Kill Many

Tractors kill about 1,000 to 1,200 persons a year in the United States, reports the National Automobile Club.

Freeways Hailed As Boon To Cities By Road Expert

Freeways produce building booms and prosperity for cities, Arthur C. Butler, director of the National Highway Users Conference, told the annual convention of the National Association of Motor Bus Owners.

"In city after city, where freeway development goes forward, slums are cleared away and property values rise. The value of land actually adjacent to freeways — whose owners sometimes fight the freeway until it is built — increases as much as 3½ times as fast as that of land in other areas."

"What is more," he continued, "people go forward. They are able to move — to get somewhere in a modern, automotive age."

In view of all this, he said,

Chrysler Corp. Develops New Brake Adhesive

TRENTON, Mich. — A new brake-bonding adhesive that "will make possible relined brake shoes equal to or surpassing new brake shoes in quality and margin of safety" has been announced by the Chemical Division of Chrysler Corp.

According to Dr. Sumner B. Twiss, division president, the adhesive will eliminate most of the production problems experienced by independent brake bonders. It has been approved for use in all Chrysler-made cars.

Called Cyclebond K-138, the adhesive is a modified nitrile-phenolic type. It has such strength, flow, viscosity-stability, film dry-out, anti-sag and consistency properties that excellent bonds between a brake shoe and brake lining can be obtained even with the simplest bonding equipment, Twiss said.

"Any independent bonder can easily achieve bond patterns in relined shoes with K-138 at least 10 to 20 per cent better than minimum SAE specifications," he said.

Safety Check Spots Idle Belts

In a safety check in Port Washington, Wis., police found that 3,031 of the 3,985 cars inspected did not have safety belts, and of the 934 automobiles equipped with seat belts, only 478 were being used.

Safety defects were found in 1,973 cars, almost half of those inspected. Police also found 78 persons driving without carrying a driver's license.

It would appear that everyone would be in favor of the federal-state highway program. "And yet," the speaker asserted, "believe it or not, there are those who would today put a monkey wrench in the works — a blockade on the road. Some of them are drummers — salesmen for another kind of transportation largely rejected and always subsidized wherever it has been used. And they are ardent propagandists. They speak loud, long and often — and always in public."

"COMFORTABLE, TOO," smiles pretty Sally Ann Hamberlin, "Miss San Francisco," as she tries on the new safety seat belts just installed for passengers and drivers by the Yellow Cab Company of San Francisco. The demonstration was an obvious success, judging by the smiles of Leslie E. Gehres (center), president of Yellow Cab, and Sidney Paton (right), co-owner of the Westlake and San Francisco Auto-Torium Stores which are supplying the seat belts to Yellow Cab. The Yellow Cab Company of San Francisco is the first such company in California to install seat belts. The Auto-Torium Stores have been conducting a driving safety education program over the past few years.

Sales Pay Plan—1941 . . .

IDEAS FROM THE PAST

The Chicago Automobile Trade Association told in one of its bulletins in 1941 of what it described as an "excellent plan" which a member dealer originated for paying salesmen.

In addition to regular compensation, the dealer gave one per cent of the delivered price of the vehicle if the deal washed out within $25 of full gross; two per cent on a full gross basis, and three per cent on $25 or better over full gross.

The money was divided equally between the new and used-car salesmen when there was a trade-in, and when the deal was a clean one, the new-car salesman received all of the additional compensation.

Tips For The Travelbound

For a smooth, carefree motoring vacation, prepare your car as carefully as you prepare your itinerary by following these three steps suggested by Tyrex Inc., association of Tyrex rayon tire cord producers.

First step is a stop at your service station. See that the car's lubricated... have lights adjusted if needed... ask the attendant to check oil, battery, transmission fluid, brakes and wheel alignment.

Second step is up to you. For safety's sake, Tyrex urges you to let your tire dealer check your tires. Look for wear and cuts... make sure your spare is in good shape.

You're finally ready for the road and step number three: have you remembered roadmaps, flash light, litter bag, first aid kit and enough games to keep the kids occupied on those long stretches ahead?

Testing Upholstery Fabric of Your Car

Don't worry too much about the way Junior bumps and bounces and scrapes on the new upholstery of your car.

After all that fabric has been through, points out the National Automobile Club, what Junior can do to it amounts to almost nothing at all. Closely exposed to bright carbon arc lights in temperatures of 130 degrees Fahrenheit for 50 hours at a time, soaked and then thoroughly baked in ovens set at 170 degrees, given as many as 180 rough rubs per minute for hours on end, pulled and stretched and twisted in a dozen different gadgets, that upholstery fabric has to prove that it can take it before it becomes a part of your car.

Designed For Children

An auto safety belt designed for children aged one to six, called the Child's Life, has been introduced by Sure-Fit Division, Howard Zink Corp., Long Beach, Calif. The belt is said to be constructed of adult belt components, such as two-inch wide, nylon webbing and steel buckle assembly. In addition, the belt incorporates features that permit the child to stand, sit or lie down.

Catching More Fish

The angler who "works" his bait or lure will catch more fish, according to the National Automobile Club.

That upholstery is tough and it's durable. It's really built to last.

Used-Car Market Ready To Rebound After Soft Period

Used cars, having absorbed a one-two punch from the smash introductions of new '63 models, are beginning to show signs of recovery.

Operators in the used-car field normally expect to get hit this time of year, but over the past six weeks the used-car market has been belted twice.

First came the anticipated seasonal adjustment in price that is always geared to new-model debuts. Additionally, this year's reception of new models was so hot that much of the attention of prospects, retailers and wholesalers was diverted from used cars.

Used car action slowed to a crawl.

In fact, last month, according to industry calculations, new-car sales handily outstripped used-car transactions—a topsy-turvy situation not often recorded in the overall market.

In this soft period, savvy operators moved to set the stage for the used-car resurgence that is now beginning to develop.

They bought selectively and cautiously in the wholesale market while cashing in on the new-car fever to "buy" trade-ins at low-book prices.

Inventories were brought in to good balance during the used-car lull, as dealers had an opportunity to stock up on late-models, clean pieces at figures that provide roomy trading margins.

In the matter of price breaks on used cars, hardly anybody got burned because birthday price adjustments had been anticipated for some time before they actually developed.

When the used-car price pattern did start trending downward, it did so in orderly fashion and setbacks were less severe than they have been in other years.

Some analysts believe that prices crumbled mainly because everybody expected them to, and stopped buying, thus weakening demand to the point where values were affected.

At any rate, the tempo is picking up again at the wholesale level and retail activity is expected to follow suit.

A Philadelphia auction operator said last week that the price adjustment to new models seem complete and that wholesale buyers are bidding again despite depressed retail action.

Another Eastern wholesaler said, "Action was surprisingly brisk at Banksville." (In wholesale lingo, "in the bank" means "sold.")

And from the retail lots, reports are that the "door-slam-

Felton Shows New MGB, First Completely New MG Since 1955

The first completely new MG in seven years has been unveiled. Representing the first major all-out change since the MGA was introduced some 100,000 cars ago, the 1963 MG—known as the MGB—has a brand new look and boasts more power and comfort. It can be seen at Paul Felton, 7353 Mission street.

The most striking change in the latest model of the world's most popular sports car manufactured by the British Motor Corporation is a new silhouette with a sleek body. It has, for the first time, roll-up windows, hinged side vents and a wrap-around windshield. It also features wide-opening, lockable doors with outside handles and a larger, lockable trunk.

Its looks and comfort tell only a part of the MGB story. There is added power. The MGB has upped its engine capacity to 1798 c.c. from 1622 c.c. in the MGA and develops 94 brake horsepower at 5,500 r.p.m. The MGB is fitted with 11-inch disk brakes on the front wheels to give the car as much stop as it has go. A tachometer is standard equipment on all models.

Roadability and ease of handling are assured in the new MGB due to the independent front wheel suspension, low center of gravity, wide track and long wheelbase. Direct rack and pinion steering insures instant response and finger-tip control. Oil cooler is standard.

Three-point seat belt anchorages are built into the MGB as standard equipment. This is a feature of all BMC cars sold in this country since June 1, 1961.

Adjustable, contoured bucket seats of foam rubber are covered in English leather with additional space behind for luggage or children.

The first MG was made in 1923 by Sir William Morris. The letters are the initials of Sir William's original company, Morris Garages. The early MGs dominated the racing world; later models gained distinction by shattering world speed records.

In fact, as recently as 1959, an MG experimental car, driven by Stirling Moss, broke five world speed and endurance records at Bonneville Salt Flats in Utah.

It was the MG-TC that first excited America's interest in sports cars along about 1948. This classic car and its successor, the MG-TD, are still a familiar sight on U. S. highways and many are kept in show-piece condition by enthusiastic owners.

The British Motor Corporation is the world's largest maker of sports cars. Other BMC cars are the Austin Healey, the Sprite and the MG Midget.

The MGB is imported into the United States by Hambro Automotive Corporation and is sold through more than 650 dealers throughout the country.

Over 800,000 United States patents (or one out of five) issued since 1899 have related to the automobile.

Some Nostalgia For Motorists

With postal rates going up and some big magazines that dates back to Benjamin Franklin having troubles, it takes a brave man to start a new publication these days, especially one without advertising, but some do. One is L. Scott Bailey who recently launched the Automobile Quarterly in the pleasant community of Kutztown, Pennsylvania.

It is an attractive, hard cover, beautifully illustrated publication devoted to new and old automobiles, especially the latter, in a way that gladdens the eye and delights the heart of motorists for whom a car means dreams and delight as well as transportation.

Bailey's second issue featured his story of the New York to Paris around-the-world race of 1908 in which a Thomas Flyer bested German, Italian and French cars in the longest and craziest sporting event in history. George Schuster, who went all the way and drove through Siberia and Europe, lives today at a remarkable 89 in Springfield, New York. Sturdy fellows these early motorists.

The fall Automobile Quarterly gives some attention to Firebirds, Corvettes and Corvairs but also has pictures of the Cord, an album of a 1904 crosscountry trip by a Franklin and four articles on the rise and fall of the Packard Motor Car Company, a subject of wistful memory to many.

"Packard was a dream—a bold, inspiring unforgettable dream," writes Tom Mahoney in the longest of these. "The advance of technology and good roads perhaps made its demise inevitable. Automobiles can be adequate without being big or expensive and the market for a luxury car is always a limited one." But a remarkable number of Packard-trained men have high posts today with American Motors, Ford and Chrysler.

Approach all highway curves with caution, points out the National Automobile Club.

All-Women Staff Handles Selling At McLean Motor Co.

HAMPTON, Va. — Because he couldn't find enough qualified salesmen, George Mingee, general manager of McLean Motor Co. (Renault) here has trained a new-car sales staff entirely composed of women.

The women were introduced to the public in a full-page newspaper ad as "The Girls in the Red Jackets." There are six of them and they wear red jackets, white blouses and gray skirts.

Asked where he got the idea, Mingee said it was original with him. However, he added, he has been told a similar plan has been tried in Florida.

Supervisor of the corps is Mrs. W. P. Link Jr., wife of the dealership's service and parts manager. She said the women feel challenged by the chance to enter a new area of sales. All have had previous sales experience.

"The girls seem to want to prove that they can sell automobiles," Mingee said.

In the first few days floor traffic increased, he said. One car that a man had been trying to sell and couldn't was taken over by one of the red

Ford Reports Record In Thunderbird Sales

DEARBORN. — Ford Division said preliminary figures show Ford Thunderbird sales in October were the highest for any month in Thunderbird's nine-year history.

October sales of more than 9,500 Thunderbirds exceeded the previous one-month record of 9,472 set in December, 1960, according to the division.

jackets and was sold by her, or more appropriately, through her.

At this stage the women are consultants. Although they have been trained by the McLean management, including Ben Wiley, new-car sales manager, and by a factory representative in closing, writing up a deal and other techniques, they leave the closing to management just now.

Training lasted three weeks before the saleswomen were tried and Mingee said the training will continue.

"The reason we went into it was because of a tight labor force in this area," he said.

"We had so many problems getting men that we did the only thing we could do... and at this point we're glad we did."

From A Feminine Viewpoint...

By Mona Baker

This news item is for husbands only, so we'll ask our feminine readers just to skip this story in the column.

Sir, if you've been worrying about what to give that special someone on your list, worry no longer—all your problems are solved. Just set aside the date December 10 when "The Fashion" will hold their first annual "Mr. Claus Night" (for men only) in their attractive store located on the Westlake Mall.

The hours will be from 9:30 p.m. to 11 p.m. Santa will be dispensing light refreshments, and lovely models will be showing the latest holiday fashions. You are invited to browse around in the store, and if you see any item that you would like to buy for your wife, the girls will be happy to model it for you. In case you aren't sure of the size, be sure to get one of their handy "her size chart" cards and have your wife fill it in.

Among models showing fashions that evening are Westlake residents Shirley Keate and Gloria Foster.

A long-time resident of the area and a truly dedicated community leader is the subject of our interview this week.

She has lived in Broadmoor Village for 15 years and has served in practically every community organization and on every fund drive. Seven years she has devoted to PTA serving as financial secretary, membership and civil defense chairman. She was treasurer for 8 years of the American Legion Auxiliary. She has been acting mother advisor of the Rainbow Girls, taking the girls on many outings, and is now on the advisory board.

Five years ago when her husband Ross passed away, she succeeded him as administrative assistant of the Broadmoor Property Owners Association and has served diligently in that position ever since.

We salute Marina Hilton, another dedicated community leader! Mother of four youngsters, Gleen 18, Carol 16, Ross 14 and Doug 9, the Hilton family live at 704 Maddux Drive.

In a shining example of a truly community "do-it-yourself" project, wedding, pounding, painting, are a dedicated group of fathers from the Village Cooperative Nursery School who are working weekends and evenings getting their new school ready for their small fry. The school was formerly located on Dunks Street but because of the new freeway will soon be demolished. The new school is located at 474 North Parkview. Heading the project is Eric Bergtraum and among fathers assisting is Sam Sorenson, Vern Schappert, Paul Kelly, Marty Martin, Tom Mathers, Nick Matve, Dick Hornung and other Dads. A committee of mothers—Kaureen Hornung, Kathy Schappert, Bonnie Groper—are busy locating equipment.

SOCIAL WHIRL: Sleekly modern, sophisticated decorations of gold, green, white, will grace the tables when the women's guild of Mater Dolorosa Church hold their first annual luncheon-fashion show, December 8, at the Elks Club in South San Francisco. "Holidays in Fashion" will be the theme and the clothes will be from "The Fashion." Limited number of reservations still available, telephone Mrs. Gerald Fagan, PL 6-1387.

Gay "Swiss Miss" table decorations of red, white and blue were the decor as Skyline Rainbow Assembly (together with three other San Francisco assemblies) held a luncheon last Saturday honoring Evelyn Veekamp of Placerville, grand worthy advisor of California, in her first official visit. Also present at the luncheon held at Crocker Temple were 18 other state grand officers.

An old-fashioned Christmas will be the setting when Mrs. Joseph S. Kent entertains the Stardust Chapter of Children's Home Society at tea this Thursday. Mrs. Donald Briggs, Parkmerced, and Westlake residents Mrs. Hartley Appleton and Mrs. Lawrence McDonnell will assist.

A pre-Christmas dance on the schedule of the City of Hope Petticoats, to be held December 9 at the Alexander Hamilton Hotel.

FASHION HINT: Do you own a necklace of precious pearls? To make them glamorous for evening wear, clip on a tiny diamond pendant made so it slips right over the pearls. This is one of the newest fashion trends in jewelry, according to fashion jewelry authority Lina Papes.

NEWS BRIEFS: The beloved classic "Christmas Carol" in a holiday production by the Pacific Players and municipal chorus scheduled for December 7 and 8 at Pedro Valley School.

Christened recently at Holy Angels Church was Andrew Keith Vierra, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Vierra, 380 Second Avenue, Colma. Mr. and Mrs. Alex A. Schussolin, San Francisco, were godparents. Grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Antonio McOrta of San Pablo and Mr. and Mrs. Alfred A. Vierra of Honolulu, Hawaii. A family dinner followed the ceremony.

Reviewing children's books for Christmas giving on December 13 will be Mrs. Jean Bishop, Richmond City children's librarian, at the monthly Friends of the Daly City Library book review.

Practically occupying her whole desk is a huge bouquet of flowers gifted by husband Ken to his wife, Bunny Gillespie, in honor of her new position as society editor. The card read: "Good luck, Scoop."

Now being organized by talented Patti Stolz, director of Daly City Belle Tones, a "Neighborhood Caroling Group" to go on a "caroling walk" on December 19 and 21. Needed especially youngsters ages 7 to 15. Telephone her at JU 6-2287 if interested.

Thanks for your letters. Keep them coming. News of your holiday plans most welcome. Send to Feminine Viewpoint, Westlake Times, 3317 San Jose Avenue, Daly City.

Christmas Wedding Date Set For Mary Becker Lee

By Bunny Gillespie
Christmas bells will combine with wedding bells for Mary Louise Becker Lee of 827 Beechwood drive in Broadmoor and Charles E. Sharp of 11 Mt. View Court in San Francisco. The couple have selected Dec. 23 for their wedding date and the attractive Swedenborgian Church for the 2 p.m. ceremony. A reception will follow in the Church social hall, after which the newlyweds will depart for a brief honeymoon.

Mary Louise is the daughter of Peter J. Becker Jr. of 824 Templeton avenue in Daly City and the late Mrs. Becker. She is the sister of Mrs. Mark Lucich of Sunnyvale and Joseph T. Becker of Mountain View. Her uncle is Franklin M. O'Brien of Parkmerced. Her great-aunt, Mrs. Walter Folsom of Glendale, will be among the family representatives at the wedding. The bride-elect is the mother of Loretta L. Lee and Jack H.

Lee, who both attend Westmoor High School.

The future Mrs. Sharp attended local elementary schools and was graduated from Jefferson Union High School. She continued her education at San Mateo Junior College.

Mary Louise is the current president of the Daly City Auxiliary of the Veterans of World War I and outgoing program chairman for the Rebekah Circle of the Broadmoor Presbyterian Church Women's Association. She is also a member of the Executive Secretaries, Inc. of San Francisco.

Her fiancé is the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Charles A. Sharp of Pasadena and the nephew of Mrs. Russell W. Hand of Pasadena. During World War II he served in France with the U. S. Army Corps of Engineers.

At their Christmas wedding, Mary Louise will be attended by her sister, Alma Lucich, as matron of honor and Charles will have his cousin, James R. Hand, as best man. Ushers will be the bride-to-be's brother, Joe, and Fred Botino of San Mateo.

After returning from their honeymoon, the young couple will live on Twin Peaks.

CANDLES and chrysanthemums were used in decorating the wedding center and pews as Sandra Smith became the bride of David Simons.

Candles Glow For Smith-Simons Wedding

A candle-light ceremony at the Temple Methodist Church was the setting for the Nov. 23 wedding of Sandra Rose Smith and David Ralph Simons, 303 Avalon drive, Pacifica.

The couple, both members of the 1959 graduating class from Westmoor High School, honeymooned in Carmel and Southern California and will make their home in Santa Barbara. The new Mr. and Mrs. Simons are attending Santa Barbara City College as limited students.

The bride, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Smith, 604 Stonyford drive, Daly City, was given in marriage by her father. The Rev. Roy Austin officiated at the 7:30 p.m. service.

For her wedding, Sandra selected a full length gown of white silk shantung with a chapel train. Her veil was elbow length and held in place by a crown of pearls and rhinestones. She carried a small white Bible covered with a corsage of carnations and chrysanthemums.

Mrs. H. W. Hopkins To Read Christmas Story At DAR Luncheon

"The Man Who Gave Us Christmas" will be read by Mrs. Herbert W. Hopkins at the Dec. 15 luncheon meeting of the Regent of Presidio Chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution.

The program will be given at 12:30 p.m. in the Marines Memorial Club, 609 Sutter street.

Mrs. Freeman L. Young will conduct a Christmas Carol sing.

Attending the bride were Laurel Klaisner as maid of honor and Kayrene Harrison and Patricia Monahan as the bridesmaids. They wore gowns of forest green peau-de-sois and carried floral pieces of white mums. Candle lighters were Sharon and Christine Smith.

Robert Simons served as best man with ushers Robert Richards, Tim Yeagar and Ken Smith.

Receiving guests in the Church social hall after the ceremony, the bride's mother wore a bone-tinted brocade ensemble, with brown accessories.

In addition to her college activities, Sandra, who is a graduate of the San Jose Hospital School of Nursing, serves as a member of the nursing staff of the Santa Barbara Cottage Hospital, David, who attended Westmoor College, is affiliated with the Southern California Edison Co. in Santa Barbara.

Community Christmas Bureau Launches Annual Drive

A total of over $1,000 in cash donations from individuals, civic, fraternal, and other groups has already been received by the Community Christmas Bureau, which will officially launch its annual drive on Monday, December 3, with headquarters at the Naval Reserve Training Center, Baldwin Ave. and San Mateo Drive, San Mateo.

Mrs. Ron Schultz, 1962 Christmas Bureau Chairman, stated that individuals and groups wishing assistance in planning a Christmas project contact her through Community Christmas Bureau, P. O. Box 49, San Mateo, or, until the opening of the Bureau, at the Volunteer Bureau, 119 Primrose Road, Burlingame. She cited as a possible project for one or more organizations the urgent needs of a county agency which serves boys and girls for articles, such as, a television set, a chain saw, pool tables, sweat shirts, other clothing, and a long list of necessities.

Mrs. Schultz pointed out that unless specified the most practical and welcome gifts are cash and merchandise orders which enable recipients aware of their needs, to make their own selections.

An outgrowth of the Adrian Ward Fund and now in its eighth year, the Christmas Bureau serves as the central clearing house for information and Christmas donations in behalf of those in need in San Mateo County. It functions under the administration of the Community Christmas Bureau Committee composed of representatives of social welfare and health agencies, civic, fraternal, business organizations, the U. S. Marine Corps and other groups.

The Christmas Bureau is a project of the Volunteer Bureau of San Mateo County and sponsored by the Board of Supervisors, the County Welfare Department, Catholic Social Service, Family Service Agency, etc. Contributing to its program is the work of the U. S. Marine Corps, 7th Infantry Battalion, San Bruno, which through its annual "Toys for Tots" Drive collects toys for distribution to the needy youngsters of San Mateo County.

Women Lauded In United Crusade Drive

Mrs. Edna Laura Calhan, chairman of the United Crusade in Pacifica, announced that the area had gone over its quota at 119.8 per cent.

Mrs. Bishop will bring a wide variety of books to display and discuss. She is considered a great favorite with audiences because of her interesting reviews and because her experience qualifies her to speak authoritatively in advising parents about the selection of reading material for their children.

The program is planned as an assist in holiday shopping for parents, grandparents and adult friends of young readers. Anyone interested is cordially invited to attend.

The program will be held at 10 a.m. in the Westlake Bowl. Free nursery service is provided by the Bowl. A coffee hour precedes the program. The YWCA co-sponsors this activity.

Peacetime Vets To Benefit From Rehabilitation Bill

Nearly 100,000 peacetime veterans who have suffered service-connected disabilities will benefit under terms of the peacetime vocational rehabilitation bill signed into law by President Kennedy, according to Glenn Corbitt, manager of the Veterans Administration's northern California regional office.

This bill extends to these peacetime veterans the benefits of VA's wartime vocational rehabilitation bill.

The Veterans Administration reports that some 12,000 peacetime veterans incur injuries each year and may be eligible for the new benefits.

The new law provides similar vocational rehabilitation training for peacetime disabled veterans as did the original vocational rehabilitation bill.

Veterans entitled to the benefits are those sustained service-connected disabilities while in the Armed Forces (a) during the period between World War II and the Korean Conflict, and (b) since Feb. 1, 1955.

One difference between the original vocational rehabilitation law and the new law, Corbitt said, is that a peacetime veteran with a disability rated less than 30 per cent must have a "pronounced employment handicap" in order to qualify him for vocational rehabilitation.

From 1943 to 1962, the Veterans Administration has provided vocational rehabilitation services to one-and-a-half million disabled veterans. Their disabilities cut across injury and disease categories from the veteran with relatively minor disabilities to the quadriplegic (paralysis of all extremities), and the veteran with very serious psychiatric history.

From this group alone, quite aside from the eight million veterans who took their training under the G.I. Bill, have come men with many skills in a wide range of occupations, contributing greatly to the manpower resources of the nation.

Eligible disabled peacetime veterans are entitled to as much as four years of vocational rehabilitation training at government expense.

Veterans may obtain additional information at any VA office.

Youth Activities Program

Junior Teen Clubs Organized

The Youth Activities Program of the Daly City Recreation Department announces the organization and opening of three junior teen clubs for 7th and 8th grade students living east of Junipero Serra Blvd. Opening night for each of these clubs will be Friday, December 7, at 7 p.m. at the Lincoln Park Clubhouse, Acton and Brunswick; the War Memorial Community Center, and the Jefferson Elementary School multi-use room. The program at Jefferson Elementary School will move to Colma Jr. High School when its new multi-use room is completed.

Activities for each of these groups will include dances, game and party nights, roller skating outings and picnics. Each club will be supervised by two members of the Recreation Department's staff and activities will be chaperoned by members' parents. Club activities and operation will be planned and organized by officers elected by the club membership. Club names and operating rules will be determined by the officers after each club is organized.

Plans call for each club to meet every other Friday from 7 to 9 p.m. at the sites indicated. In addition, each club will plan its own special activities and outings, money raising and community service projects, and will hold monthly officer meetings.

Membership in these clubs is open to any 7th and 8th grade student living east of Junipero Serra Blvd. who lives in Daly City, or attends a school in Daly City. Specific boundaries for each club are indicated on a map being distributed through the schools to all 7th and 8th grade students and their parents.

Plans for the development of this program are being formulated under the direction of Youth Activities Supervisor Alan Boyd in cooperation with Jim Thompson, Principal of Colma Jr. High School and its faculty, student body and PTA.

A similar program for 7th and 8th grade students living west of Junipero Serra Boulevard is scheduled to begin shortly. Tentative plans call for the organization of four clubs to serve this area.

Additional information pertaining to the program can be obtained by calling the Recreation Department at PL 5-0850 Ext. 18.

Last Night To Join Teen Club

Tonight is the last night to obtain membership cards for the Hi-Fi Teen Club. The membership drive for this program sponsored by the Daly City Recreation Department closes for a month's period according to an announcement of the club's executive council.

Pictures to be placed on the card for identification will be received for two more weeks. However, no one will be admitted without a club card after tonight's meeting.

Membership fee is 75c and a polaroid camera will be available to take pictures of all those who don't have their own. An additional 25c charge will be made for each picture taken to help defray expenses.

Teen Club Selects Executive Council

Twenty-one members of the Hi-Fi Teen Club have been appointed to serve on the club's executive council. Ron Madariaga, club advisor, and Alan Boyd, supervisor of youth activities for the sponsoring Daly City recreation department, made the appointments based on the candidates' leadership value to the Hi-Fi Teen Club.

A candidate's night selection party on November 17 was used as the basis for the selection. However, additional consideration was given to past participation and interest in the club's activities. These appointments are only preliminary until a revised constitution can be adopted by the entire club.

Immediate items for the council's discussion and planning, in addition to its regular program of activities are: (1) Development of a new constitution; (2) reorganization of the executive council's responsibilities, and (3) methods of developing greater participation in activities by the entire club membership.

Monday evening, November 26, the following met for the first time at an executive council meeting: SENIORS: Daryl Crist, Ray Archuleta, Rich Day, Ray Marshall, Joann Doyle, Joyce Gagero and David Vogt, all Jefferson High School students; JUNIORS: Westmoor students Cee Murrish and Chris Ravis, and Jefferson students Judy Reed, Joe Chavez, Elfe Dahme, Susan Friere, Frances Taborsky;

Crist and Juniors Judy Reed and Cee Murrish, along with Alan Boyd, Youth Activities supervisor, are in charge of local arrangements. A committee representing the Hi-Fi Teen Club will serve as hostesses and hosts for the meeting. Included are Ray Marshall, Elfe Dahme, Kay Loeser, Gail Wyman, Chris Davis and Bob and David Vogt.

Charles Vincent, director of Recreation for the city of Daly City and a representative of the City Council will officially welcome the delegates to the meeting. Cities expected to be represented are Alameda, Richmond, Oakland, Hayward, San Mateo, San Jose and Concord.

Agenda items for discussion revolve around the development of a new organizational structure and a revised constitution for the Northern California Youth Council. Preliminary proposals have called for the division of N.C.Y.C. into regional areas so that more youth groups may have an opportunity to participate in workshops and conferences.

Basic purposes of the Northern California Youth Council is: 1. To encourage the work of its member groups; 2. To further expose youth to a variety of social, economic and cultural differences, and to develop high standards of youth. The Council composed of youth groups from the northern part of the state strives to accomplish these purposes through annual youth workshops, conferences and institutes.

Econ. Class Hears Stock Market Talk

The mechanics of the stock market was the subject of a talk given by Mr. William DeMarrais in Mrs. Ruth Blake's economics classes on November 28.

DeMarrais reviewed the investment business in the United States and the history of the New York stock exchange from its founding underneath a tree on Wall Street up to its present position as the largest market place in the world.

He also explained the limitations and requirements regarding membership in the exchange as well as the function of the various Wall Street officials.

"The talk was very illuminating the class work on this subject," remarked Mrs. Blake, who has, as part of the unit on business and management, presented a film on the stock exchange to further supplement study in the text book.

Their goal is unlimited.

Skyline Pastor To Speak At Broadmoor

Next Sunday the congregation at Broadmoor Presbyterian Church's twin morning services will have the opportunity to see and hear Rev. Otto Henn, organizing minister of the new Skyline Parish of the Presbyterian Church.

Rev. Herbert Tweedie, minister of the Broadmoor church, issued a special invitation to residents of the Skyline area in Daly City to attend the services and to meet Pastor Henn. Said Mr. Tweedie, "There are scores of people living up that way who aren't presently affiliated with a Presbyterian Church, or any Protestant church, for that matter. This service will give them the chance to observe their new neighbor, perhaps before he's had a chance to call upon them. And, when the new church is established, proximity, as well as Protestantism, will invite them through the doors."

Christians Versus Communism

For the next several weeks a study of the newly published Church Teaching and Training study course book, "Christians Confront Communism" by Paul Geren, will be taught at the Westlake Southern Baptist Church, 90 Northridge Drive. The Reverend Charles S. Jennings, pastor, is teaching the course on Wednesday nights at 7:30 p.m. Accompanying the study is a period of prayer for our nation, its leaders and Christian people. Included in the book are chapters dealing with the Communist and Christian views of God, history, man, ethics, science, church and state, economics, and the challenge of Christians as they confront Communism. Everyone is invited to participate in the study and discussions.

Auxiliary Meets

Members of the Junior and Intermediate Girls' Auxiliaries of the Westlake Southern Baptist Church will participate in an association meeting Friday night, November 30, 7:30 p.m. at the First Southern Baptist Church, 39 East 39th Avenue, San Mateo.

CHURCH EVENTS

THE 100,000TH PERSON WAS admitted to Mary's Help Hospital's out-patient clinic in San Francisco's Mission district over the past weekend. She was Mrs. Carol Music of 854 Rhode Island street, youthful-looking widow and mother of seven children ranging in age from 3 to 19 years. Pictured are Sister Hermine, hospital administrator, right, and Sister Raphael, in charge of the clinic, presenting Mrs. Music with a plaque in honor of the occasion. The plaque was accompanied by a more practical gift for the children, three of whom are shown: Sharon 16, Carl 8 and Ronnie 3. Grading for the new $8,000,000 Mary's Help Hospital in Daly City will begin soon with groundbreaking ceremonies set for mid-April of next year. The Nursing School, which will graduate its 50th class next June, will resume operation when the new 250-bed hospital opens its doors in North San Mateo County in 1965. The hospital is operated by the Daughters of Charity of St. Vincent de Paul.

Alcoholism Talk At Westside Baptist

A good deal of publicity is being given these days to the topic of Alcoholism, and its alarming increase here in California. What can the church do to combat this ever increasing problem? Are there any agencies that are actively engaged in helping people with this problem? These and other questions will be answered at the Quarterly Business Meeting of the Westside Baptist Church on Wednesday evening, December 5th at 6:30 p.m.

Jose Montoya, a converted alcoholic from San Francisco will be present to give his testimony of how he found sobriety. Mr. Montoya was reached through the Christian Alcoholics group of San Francisco, and will be able to tell of the fine program this organization carries on in helping others to find reality in Christ, and to overcome their problem.

The evening will begin with a Fellowship pot-luck dinner, followed by a time of singing of Christmas carols, led by Alton Swedberg. After Mr. Montoya has finished speaking, the church will enter into its Business session, which will conclude the evening's events.

Sunday morning at 9:45 a.m., Sunday Church School convenes. During the Sunday School hour, all classes except the Adult and Nursery class, will remain in the main auditorium to practice for the Christmas program.

At the 11 a.m. Morning Worship Hour, the Pastor will speak on the topic, "Personal Evangelism." In the Evening service which meets at 7 p.m., his topic will be, "I Owe A Debt." The Conference Youth Fellowship groups meet each Sunday evening at 6:15 p.m. Junior age boys and girls are enthusiastically responding to the program provided in their Junior Cadet hour, Junior High and Senior High age groups meet separately.

Tuesday evening, December 11th, at 7:45 p.m., the Women's Missionary Society will meet at the Ann Besser home, 500 Del Monte, South San Francisco. The program will be presented by some of the ladies in a pageant, entitled, "Christmas, Christmas, Everywhere."

California PTA Makes Report

Reports and action taken by the board of managers of the California Congress of Parents and Teachers at its November meeting in Los Angeles included the following:

Scholarships

Approved by the board was the granting of four music scholarships for 1963-64. The first music scholarships to be offered under Honorary Life Membership projects, the scholarships will be given to qualifying students who plan to teach music in the public schools of California.

A committee headed by Mrs. Winston of Los Angeles will prepare procedures for granting these scholarships, including specific requirements and selection of schools for training.

"We need qualified music teachers in the classrooms," said Mrs. Dan Millard of Reseda, music and cultural arts chairman, "so that all children may have the opportunity to learn music appreciation as well as vocal expression. Music is recognized as an integral part of our total cultural life, and it should be a basic ingredient in every child's education, especially at the elementary level."

Also approved was one Children's Librarian Fellowship for four $250 grants to San Jose State College for teacher librarianship trainees.

Gifted Minors

Mrs. George Alpers of San Rafael, special education chairman, reported that 38,705 students in the 188 school districts that chose to participate, were involved in the first year of the program for mentally gifted minors. Had the more than 1,600 school districts in California participated, a total of 69,423 students would have been eligible.

The program was authorized by the 1961 Legislature following a three year study of the feasibility of such a program by a state advisory committee to the Superintendent of Public Instruction. Mrs. Alpers is a member of the committee as the representative of the California Congress of Parents and Teachers.

The six types of programs carried on were: (1) Enrichment in regular classes (extra work, depth, research projects); (2) mail courses or special tutoring; (3) acceleration; (4) part time college classes in special courses (specifically for high school pupils); (5) special counseling or instruction outside of classes, and (6) special classes organized for gifted pupils (part of the day).

Convention

Mrs. Tony Patch of San Francisco, chairman of the state convention program committee, announced the keynote speaker of the 1963 convention will be Dr. Milton Babitz, consultant in parent education, Bureau of Adult Education, State Department of Education. Dr. Babitz is a member of the CCPT advisory board.

Other convention speakers named by Mrs. Patch will be Mrs. F. D. Bevil of Sacramento, official representative to the convention and a regional vice president of the National Congress of Parents and Teachers, and Dr. Andrew Holt, president of the University of Tennessee.

Convention dates are May 8-10, 1963, in Los Angeles.

New Units

Thirty-five new units, with a total membership of 5,052, were accepted into the CCPT by the board. Total number of local associations in California is 4,490, according to Mrs. C. F. Rees of Inglewood, director of extension.

Statement on Youth

Following studies in many of the CCPT districts, and by a special committee of the board of managers, a statement was prepared by the committee headed by Mrs. Ralph Dow of Sacramento, and at this meeting was adopted by the board.

Divergent Youth

All of the PTA's work is based on the importance of strengthening family life, but studies of divergent youth show that in many instances the home is unable to cope with these youth. Without the full cooperation of all concerned with these problems, our program to strengthen family life cannot fully succeed.

The term divergent youth as used by the California Council on Continuation Education, is intended to include those who are variously referred to as maladjusted, near delinquent, potential dropouts, educationally disinterested, reluctant learners, nonconformists, non-achievers, etc.

Statement on Youth

1—Responsibility should be shared.

Responsibility for providing for the needs of divergent youth must be shared jointly by the school and the community. It is not a school responsibility alone. Practical and continuous procedures for communication and cooperation between the school and community agencies should be sought. The community should provide a high quality comprehensive school program; and related community services should be strengthened as necessary to share this responsibility.

2—The role of the school. The basic solution to the problem of divergent youth within the school lies in providing an educational program to meet the needs of a wide variety of children and youth. In each school district, attention should be given continuously to:

Reviewing educational goals; Curriculum goals, particularly a comprehensive high school curriculum;

Parent-school-community communication and cooperation; Teacher-pupil ratio;

Adequate counseling services. Early identification of need of remedial services and availability of these services, in school or community. Availability of continuation, adult and junior college education. Strong local school districts, able to provide an effective program within a framework of state standards and financial support.

3—Legal provisions regarding school attendance.

The compulsory school attendance should not be lowered. It should be uniformly interpreted and enforced with any legislation necessary for clarification of intent and enforcement—including the continuation education law.

4—Early identification counseling and remedial services.

The availability and quality of such services vary greatly throughout the state. Adequate standards should be established for such service, with provision for state financial assistance to the school district or local government as necessary to enforce them. This includes school counseling and guidance, school and community health services, and pilot projects relating to special needs of children and youth beginning at the elementary level.

5—More concern for youth employment opportunities in each community.

Provision should be made for transition from school work for youth under 18; or for those over 18 who have not graduated. Work experience and work-school or continuation education programs are already in existence in many school districts, but should be extended to all.

Employers and apprenticeship councils, labor unions, schools, PTAs and other related groups are urged to cooperate in a community plan of information and action about employment opportunities for youth, and of the preparation necessary for various occupations.

This should include those occupations which require a minimum of training and skills.

6—Suspension and expulsion.

The education program of the majority of children and youth must be protected from disturbing elements in the classroom and in school activities. Suspension or expulsion of the disturbing student without supervision is, however, not a solution and may lead to further delinquency. After all avenues have been exhausted for a school solution, there should be a coordinated school community program for these out-of-step students.

7—Local community responsibility.

Removal of the youth from the home or community may be justified in certain extreme instances, for which a facility may need to be provided. However, the major attack on the needs of divergent youth lies in the strengthening of the program of the local school and community in the many ways suggested in this statement.

Some straight talk about food costs to every woman who wants to feed her family better for less

This is not the kind of supermarket ad you're used to, because this is a different kind of supermarket.

Everybody wants to buy favorite food items for less money. So for years food stores have advertised flashy weekend "Specials" below cost, to lure you in. The catch is that these losses are offset by higher everyday prices on all other items in the store.

You won't find these "loss leaders" at the exciting new ALEC Supermarket. Instead, you'll find uniformly lower everyday prices on everything on your shopping list. About 10% less than anywhere else we know of, in fact.

This means, for example, that a typical weekly cart of food that costs you about $34.25 elsewhere, costs only $30.82 at ALEC. And not just on weekends—any day you prefer to shop. (Matter of fact, our exclusive ALEC Bonus Premium Plan gives you even greater savings on Mondays and Tuesdays, when we're not so crowded. Better than savings stamps, without all the bother of collecting them. Be sure to ask for details about this plan when you come in.)

What about quality? The ALEC Supermarket now offers only the finest personally-selected USDA CHOICE meats, including well-trimmed steer beef, guaranteed good or your money back without question. Our fine fruits and vegetables are guaranteed fresh and flavorful, too.

And throughout our big, bright cheery Supermarket you'll find your favorite national brands, all clearly priced so you can quickly see how much less you can buy them for at ALEC. See for yourself.

Makes sense, doesn't it? So start feeding your family better for less today. When you see how much you can save on all your living needs in our 35 other departments, you'll want to have fun visiting ALEC Membership* Shopping Center at least once a week.

*ALEC membership costs just $2, which you may easily save on your very first visit. And every week you'll receive our Members' Newsletter with advance information on special events and bargains throughout the store.

FRESH-LOCK SEAFOODS by Gorton's

FRESH-LOCK SEAFOODS... By Gorton's ...Are "Fresher Than Fresh"

It's happened! Gorton's developed a brand new process called "Fresh-Lock" that keeps frozen seafoods fresher-than-fresh! This means you now can enjoy the same flavor, appearance, nutrition and freshness in frozen fish that you would if you caught it and cooked it minutes later. You can actually tell the difference even before you cook new "Fresh-Lock" seafoods.

HERE'S WHY:

(1) Fresh-Lock Fillets retain more of the juices vital to nutrition and flavor when thawed. (2) They look fresher—are moist and firm like sea-fresh fish. (3) They have a delicious, delicate "non-fishy" flavor! On this page are just a few of the new Fresh-Lock seafoods you'll find in QFI's large freezer case. Try one this week and enjoy the wonderful new difference in seafoods... exclusively at QFI!

'Tis The Season To Plant Holly

It is a blessing of nature that holly berries happen along in time for Christmas. And it is a blessing of the California climate that they do so well in our gardens. Few places in the world are better adapted to growing these holiday specials and none has more different varieties to offer the gardener. The traditional holly for Christmas decoration, and still the most widely grown, is the English Holly, a handsome shrub or small tree with prickly leaves and glistening red berries. This will grow to tree proportions in time, but is really better for garden use when pruned annually and kept in shrub form.

Many Variations

There are a hundred and one different variations of the English Holly, and if you think this an exaggeration, it is only a slight one. Members of the California Association of Nurserymen can offer over a dozen different English Hollies, each of them with individual qualities distinguishing it from the others.

Unless you are a holly hobbyist, however, you can only use one or two of these many varieties. C.A.N. nurserymen suggest that you shop for them now during the season of their bearing, when you can see both leaf and berry at their best.

Biggest differences among the various English Hollies lie in their leaves, some of which are less spiny than others, as with the Jan Van Tol variety, and others of which have silver or golden variegation on the margins of the leaves. A striking example of this latter characteristic is the Golden Queen English Holly with leaf margins of a bright golden yellow.

English Hollies are largely dioecious, which means that male and female flowers are born on separate shrubs, necessitating at least one male pollinizer with the berry-bearing females. This explains why many seedlings which pop up around old holly plantings do not bear crops. Members of the C.A.N. offer both male and female plants, as well as those on which both male and female are grafted to insure self-pollination.

English Hollies are grown throughout the state, but are at their very best in the north coast counties. The Chinese Holly and its varieties—self fertile plants, on which berries are profuse this time of year—are among the most popular for use in southern California. They are readily identified by the more or less spineless leaves, which are also more rotund than those on English Holly.

Prolific Shrub

Most widely grown and handsomest of the Chinese Holly varieties is the Burford Holly, a very prolific shrub from the standpoint of cropping. This bears extra large berries, which seem also extra bright because of their number. Burford Holly comes highly recommended for all areas of the state, not just southern California. Burford Holly is often found in espalier form or as a pyramidal shrub in nurseries.

Another Chinese Holly is the Dwarf Chinese Holly, which bears no crop of berries but is still prized for its handsome, compact growth. It makes a fine filler shrub for the evergreen border.

You'll find countless other named varieties of holly, including several Japanese Hollies, handsome shrubs which bear black instead of red berries and are primarily used for hedges or foundation shrubs. Many new hybrids appear on the market each year, some of which are noted for their berries, others merely for foliage. It pays to keep up on the new varieties if you have an eye for special qualities.

MRS. E. A. SANDBERG

San Bruno Woman Heads Cancer Drive

Mrs. E. A. Sandberg of San Bruno has accepted for a third successive year the county residential chairman's role during the San Mateo County branch of the American Cancer Society's 1963 fund-raising campaign.

Mrs. Sandberg, of 2330 Catalpa way, began her volunteer work with the county ACS unit in 1958 as San Bruno's city chairman. She was a district chairman the following year and has been county residential chairman since the 1960-61 campaign.

"A number of my friends and relatives have been victims of cancer," said Mrs. Sandberg in explaining her continued interest in local cancer society activities.

"The more I learned about this dread disease," she added, "the more convinced I became that many of my friends' deaths from cancer could have been prevented. I decided then to make the American Cancer Society's fight my own."

"As a substitute teacher for the San Mateo High School district, I know at first hand how valuable the ACS program of education can be along with our service and research activities. The San Mateo County unit, I feel, has made great strides in the past five years. But there is a new need to do more, so I am pleased to serve again in this important project," Mrs. Sandberg said.

As San Mateo County residential chairman, Mrs. Sandberg will assist city chairmen throughout the county under the direction of the county chairman, Thomas C. Moroney, Burlingame attorney.

Christmas Spirit Seen On W. Portal

Every year before Christmas a large number of programs are under way to distribute the wealth among the less fortunate in San Francisco. This is another example of the warm heart of the foggy city by the Golden Gate.

The people on West Portal avenue enter into the spirit of giving each year. On Saturday, December 6th, at 1 p.m., the Empire Theatre at number 85 West Portal avenue is giving a special show for children. Each year theatre manager Harvey Anderson collects new or used reproducible toys as the admission charge. No money is accepted.

The toys are repaired by the San Francisco Fire Department and given out by the department at Christmas to children who otherwise would have nothing. Here again, within our glorious fire department we see the spirit of San Francisco upheld by fine deeds. You can be sure that many hours are spent carefully repairing these toys.

Last year an entire truck load of toys were gathered. Bicycles and tricycles are particularly welcome. So, if your children have any spare toys, send them to the Empire Theatre for a special series of cartoons, and don't forget the toys.

Again this year, West Portal avenue is gaily decked out for the Christmas season. Harvey Anderson and his colleagues have placed trees along the center strip. Early one morning, Harvey Anderson (Empire theatre), Don King (King and Sullivan, attorneys), Vince Manella (Manella's Ice Cream), Michael Cunco (Family Liquor Store) and Len Powers appeared at the local Christmas tree lot and prepared the trees for firm installation.

The next day the trees were decorated gaily, complete with a gold star on top of each tree. The trees provide a colorful, pleasant holiday atmosphere for Christmas shoppers on West Portal.

Airpains Club Bases Operations In DC

The largest club on the west coast, the Airpains, meet at the Daily City Archery & Hobby Shop twice a month. At these meetings instructions are given concerning every phase of model building. At the field anyone needing help is taught how to keep the airplane in the air, the advanced flyer is helped with a series of stunts, according to owner Bill Barrett of Daily City Hobby Shop.

Visitors are always welcome, at the meetings or at the field. During the summer months events are held twice a month and the competition is from all of northern California.

There are many different types of events involved. The events cover all types of airplanes such as carrier, speed, combat and national air racers. In order to compete the flyer must build his own airplane.

Model Airplane Clubs are nation wide and many members are interested in aviation as a career. A good percentage join Airpains. T. R. Marino, was appointed to the Air Force Academy.

This hobby is not just for fathers and sons but mother, daughter and grandmother too.

County Highway Taxes $203, 279

The October apportionment of state highway users taxes amounted to $37,136,228, a 10 per cent increase over the distribution for the same month last year. State Controller Alan Cranston reported today.

A total of $8,794,299 was apportioned among the counties. San Mateo County's share was $203,279.

Cranston said $23,772,529 went into the state highway fund for expenditure on highways. $3,469,440 was apportioned to the state highway fund for city use and $1,099,960 was transferred to the general fund.

The allocation was derived from the following sources: Net gasoline tax, $33,506,625; diesel fuel tax, $2,500,477; by transfer from the motor vehicle transportation tax fund, $1,328,318, and from miscellaneous sources, $808.

October Savings Bonds Sales Reach $372,274 Total

"Every citizen has an opportunity to back his country through the purchase of U. S. Savings Bonds," Volunteer San Mateo County Savings Bond Chairman George A. McQueen reported in his monthly release on bond sales in the county and Northern California.

"October sales of both Series E and the current-income Series H Savings Bond in this county totaled $372,274," the chairman revealed.
"Cash paid by a purchaser for bonds is like an individual loan to help his country which in turn guarantees interest plus full return of principal when the bond is cashed in by its legal owner," he explained.

Fire Chief's Daughter In "Music Man" Lead

By Mona Baker
A pert and vivacious little dark-eyed girl from Daly City is playing one of the leads in "The Music Man" which opened last Saturday evening at Oakland's California Playhouse for a sixteen weeks run.

Susan Wayne Alexander, fourteen-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Alexander, 207 87th Street, plays the part of "Gracie," the mayor's younger daughter. She also is dancing in the show and singing in the chorus. Her father is a Battalion Chief with the Daly City Fire Department.

Coming from a theatrical family (Grandfather Walter McDowell was famed for his San Francisco Punch and Judy show, and grandmother Elizabeth sang in opera in Germany) Susan seems destined for the footlights. A talented and polished dancer as well as singer, she has that magic quality of showmanship that brings audiences to their feet.

She has studied dancing only three and one half years at Shipley and Smith Colma studios yet in that time has appeared in numerous talent shows around the Bay Area and also in Los Angeles where she danced before a seminar of the National Association of Dance and Affiliated Artists.

She also appeared in a Bohemian benefit at Monte Rio where Ray Bolger and Art Linkletter were masters of ceremonies. Last summer was the second season she has been featured in the nightly show at the Rio Nido resort, where she was known as the "Charleston Girl." She placed in the

The "Dog" Ordinance

Now that the law is in the books that Daly City residents can only have two dogs, or cats or what have you the Daly City council will undoubtedly be asked to consider small changes to pacify those animal owners who own more than the required number.

The council in past years had lost a battle to change the law when animal lovers turned out in force to defeat legislation.

But on Nov. 26 they apparently had made up their minds to change the archaic law, which stated a Daly City resident could own 25 animals.

Miss Isabel Dellamore, 78 Vendome, is no doubt typical of several residents who wonder what is going to happen, if anything, to the "excess" of animals she owns.

Miss Dellamore owns three dogs and a cat and she was contemplating "getting rid of" one of them. "I live all by myself and I'm scared to death to be alone," she said.

The San Francisco ordinance, she said, allows four animals—three dogs and a cat.

Perhaps the city would do well to model its ordinance along these lines—allowing four animals.

Observe Our Rights

On December 15, we Americans will proudly observe a very special occasion which our foes, the Communists, would find difficulty in understanding.

It will be Bill of Rights Day, marking the passing of 171 years since the first ten amendments to our federal Constitution were adopted.

These amendments reiterate the five basic freedoms that make up our way of life—freedom of speech and of press, freedom of religion, and freedom of assembly and of petition.

These liberties were firmly written into our Constitution but there were those who believed that they needed still stronger guarantees and so the amendments were drafted that there should never be any mistake about our fundamental freedoms.

Today, in enjoying them in every day living, we more or less take them for granted. Yet there still remain, here and there in our land, a few who would ignore them—who seek to deprive Americans of equal rights because of their skin color; others who mock at religious liberty by ranting against those who held other views.

What we must remember is that every violation of our precious freedoms makes propaganda for our Communist enemies. It enables them to repeat their spurious lie that Americans do not practice what they preach; that democracy is a hollow word.

Those who trample our inherent liberties, then, are traitors to the cause of American freedom—traitors to our country. Let us remember that as we pause to reflect on the significance of our Bill of Rights.

IT'S NEWS TO VETS

Q—Are young people engaged in the VA's War Orphan Educational program benefitted by provisions of a new law?

A—Yes. If they are forced to suspend their schooling or training because of financial reasons beyond their control, such as illness in their immediate family, or because the job at which they work requires their presence on the job at a certain season, their deadline date will be extended by the length of time they are thus kept out of training.

Q—May a veteran who has no service-connected illness enter a VA hospital and pay for his care?

A—No. The government extends hospitalization benefits free of charge to those veterans with service-connected disabilities and to those veterans with non-service-connected disabilities who cannot afford to pay for their hospitalization. All other veterans are expected to use non-VA hospitals.

Q—Can a veteran pay off his GI loan before it becomes due and not be penalized?

A—Yes. A GI loan may be partially or fully paid at ANY TIME WITHOUT PENALTY. Part payments may not be less than one monthly installment or $100, whichever is less.

Now That The Election Is Over . . .

How To Help Your Congressman

Now that your Congressman is elected, there are a number of things you as a citizen can do to help him do his job. The Humble Way suggests in an article in its Fall issue.

"Your contribution to good government should not end with the vote you cast in the General Election," says the quarterly magazine of Humble Oil & Refining Company. It lists a few simple do's and don'ts for good citizenship.

Among the do's: Get to know your Congressman. Either in person, or by mail, take the opportunity after the election to wish him well. Let him know who you are and what your interests are.

Write to him about matters on which you have some information and in which you are concerned. Be sure that your letters reflect real information which you know personally. In discussing issues, show specifically, from your own experience, how the proposal affects you.

Acknowledge things your Congressman does that you approve. Let him know that you are aware of his work.

When you have an interest in a subject, inform your Congressman or Senator while there is still time for him to take effective action.

Don't rely on pressure campaigns of petitions, mass mailings, mass telegrams on subjects that you don't know about personally. A thoughtful letter has more meaning than a sheaf of identical telegrams or postcards.

Don't berate your Congressman or Senator, or call him names if he does not agree with you. If you disagree with him, give reason for your disagreement.

Don't pretend to represent more political influence than you have. Write or talk with your Congressman as an individual with personal concern about issues, but don't attempt to speak for all your neighbors.

By ARTEMUS BIERCE

A recent survey on "Adolescent Attitudes Towards Academic Brilliance," sponsored by the youth project of Teachers College, Columbia University, revealed that the most admired teenager is the one who is fairly bright, athletically inclined and who doesn't hit the books much.

According to the survey, the least admired teenager is the brilliant student who is a book fiend and very non-athletic. To his fellow classmates, "this cat ain't nowhere, man."

After reading this article, we decided to swoop down on our teen-age contacts and inquire on other requisites for being the big daddy of the bubble-gum campus.

So armed with a notebook and teen-age translator (you need one of these to decipher the vernacular of the bouffant hair styles and hot-rod world) we set out to find a teenager who would best ascribe to the standards of being "admirable."

Our first interview was with Harry. Harry was a tall, thin teenager dressed in the usual ivy-league attire. "Hello, Harry, how is it going?" we said, trying not to act too ignorant of the teen world.

"What's happening, Baby?" he replied nonchalantly.

"What's this 'baby-bit'?" we asked of our interpreter.

"That is the standard greeting in the teen world," he replied.

"Tell me, Harry, don't you find those ivy pedal push . . . we mean ivy trousers, somewhat tight?" we asked.

"No, man, they're boss," he echoed between crackles of gum.

"Boss" means that they are tops, the best," said our very proficient interpreter.

We guess we understood, we are still not sure. Anyway, next we asked Harry what it was that made him so popular with his gender.

"I am really boss on the scene, man, with the 'Mash Potatoes,' the 'Popeye' and the 'Shimmy Twist,'" said the youth.

"He sounds to us like Cassius Clay at the food line of the company cafeteria," we said to our interpreter. He explained to us that the above mentioned were actually teen-age dances.

"Whatever happened to the 'Jitterbug,' the 'Fox Trot,' the 'Chicken Reel,' and that famed old thing, the ordinary 'Twist'?" we asked the disciple.

"They couldn't catch the scene, baby, cause the frogs from the fields were in," he vociferated in his strange tongue.

"What he means is that those dances died out once they were adopted by the people in the country," our interpreter said.

"How about athletics, Harry, do you find that the sporting endeavors enhance your image in the teen community?" we asked. For the first time in the interview, Harry had to discontinue with the interpreter.

"Yeh, man, yeh. I am very athletic. I play lots of billiards, a little bumper tag, and once in a while engage in a game of poker," he said to us.

"That is all very fine, Harry, now tell us about your study habits. Do you find that all of those wild dances and tag games hinder your study habits," we asked of the sober-faced youth.

"On the contrary," he replied. "It seems to be the other way around. All of these wild philosophy, English and math courses seem to interfere with my social habits," he told us.

"Very good, Harry, thank you very much for this interview. By the way, there is one more thing. What do you expect to do when you graduate next term?" we asked.

"Harvard or Yale, I haven't decided yet," he bluntly replied without cracking a smile or even his gum.

Daly City's Marchbanks Park almost didn't get opened up last Saturday. It seems that former San Francisco State grid star Allen Abraham, who is the recreation director at the park on weekends, phoned in Saturday morning and said he couldn't make it.

Allen had a valid reason. He had eloped to Reno with Jefferson High School gym teacher Diane Camilli, daughter of the ex-New York Yankee great Dolph Camilli the night before.

At a recent meeting of the Jefferson High School District teachers' association, the group was asked to affirm the district's traditional policy of hiring without regard to racial factors. The group defeated the measure, 57-27, which seems to imply some thing.

The View From .. Behind The Badge

Written and Edited by Daly City Police Department

The Undercover Man . . .

Officer Donohue is assigned to an undercover detail. In the course of his duties, he finds himself inside a tavern, waiting for the arrival of his suspect.

His suspect does not arrive, but another person strikes up an acquaintance with Donohue. They talk of many things, and eventually they speak of pills.

The new acquaintance offers to sell some pills to the officer. The pills are dangerous drugs. Donohue agrees to call at the man's address in a day or so.

The date is kept and the pills and money exchange hands. The pills are analyzed and prove to be dangerous drugs, as represented. A warrant of arrest is obtained for the man.

The arrest . . .

Sergeant Terry and another detective arrive at the man's apartment, armed with the warrant that has rewarded Donohue's efforts.

They are met at the door by an unshaven man who claims to be the stepfather of the suspect. The suspect is not a home, he says.

The officers enter the apartment anyway and find and arrest the suspect. The suspect is in a drunken state, reeking of wine and other odors, unkempt, disheveled, dirty, and proclaiming his status as the father of a family.

The lying stepfather is a very loud person, and he distresses the officers with his verbosity. They communicate with police headquarters and inquire as to whether any other department might be interested in the whereabouts of this man.

As it happens, another department is interested in the person, and a warrant of arrest reposes at the local headquarters. Stepfather is likewise arrested, over his many protestations of innocence and wrong identification.

The mean are booked and locked up. After trial, the original suspect goes to jail for a while. The lying stepfather is sent to the other department, after which he serves a couple of days in jail on an old charge.

After this, stepfather returns to town, and steals an auto, and is promptly arrested and incarcerated by the Broadmoor police.

The apartment . . .

The plight of the family in that apartment bothers the officers. That same night, Sergeant Terry brings Detective La Bruzzo to that place. La Bruzzo is the juvenile liaison officer, and this matter now pertains to children.

Accompanying them are the beat patrolman, Officer Steen, and the police matron, Mrs. Sherwood. They enter the apartment again and survey the scene.

The place smells very badly. There are puddles on the floor. One's shoes tend to stick to the linoleum as one walks.

Garbage is piled in several corners of the rooms. Empty wine bottles abound, piled in tinkling heaps in the bathroom, bedroom, and living room. The place is not merely filthy, it is an absolute health hazard.

Two children sleep, clothed, on blackened bedding in a closed, odoriferous bedroom. Their mother sleeps in the same room. She is awakened and is found to be fully clothed and very dirty. She has a bad case of

Airmen A. Drevin, N. Frank Reassigned

Two South San Francisco men are being reassigned to Chanute AFB, Ill., to attend the United States Air Force technical training course for electricians.

The men, both of whom completed basic military training at Lackland AFB, Texas, are: Airman Basic Michael A. Drevin, son of Al Drevin, of 216 El Campo. He is a 1962 graduate of South City High School.

Airman Basic Nicholas A. Frank, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ludwig E. Frank, of 333 Alta Loma Drive. He is a 1960 graduate of Riordan High School.

South City Sailor

Promoted: 2nd Class

James H. Haller, personnelman second class, USN, son of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth V. Haller, of 1032 Grand avenue, South San Francisco, was promoted to his present rate, November 16, while serving with a naval unit at Yokosuka, Japan.

Haller entered the service in October, 1958, and is a graduate of Polytechnic High School in San Francisco.

the shakes, and is suffering from withdrawals from alcohol and/or pills or worse.

She is a wreck and she is an incompetent mother. She is booked, and she is eventually sent to the county jail for a while.

The children are hungry and have sores on their legs. They are intelligent, but don't have much of a chance for future life if they should vegetate in this environment.

Memory recalls the fact that this family suffered the death of a child some time ago. Hindsight indicated that this may have been neglect, although proof of that was and is lacking.

Mrs. Sherwood and La Bruzzo make out the necessary juvenile reports, and transport the kids to the county juvenile facility for shelter and, it is hoped, eventual placement with a responsible family.

Photographs are taken of the filthy abode as a routine part of the investigation. The photos prove to be graphic, even though they do not convey the sensation of smell to the viewer.

The officers have done their job adequately here, and can mark the resulting reports with "CASE CLOSED." But that doesn't drive away the nagging thoughts and reflections concerning those children.

Shed all those heavy blankets and start enjoying the light-weight sleeping comfort of one electric blanket. Choose the heat you want and have the same even nose-to-toes warmth all night long. Another electric blanket wonder: turn it on while you get ready for bed, then slide between sheets that are warm and cozy! (You can give your old blankets to CARE, 444 Market Street, San Francisco.)
